From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, churches across the Archdiocese of Boston are embracing a moment to pray for those who have been victims of clergy sexual abuse, to ask for forgiveness for systemic and personal failures to prevent that abuse and seek healing for the whole body of the Church. Although the Church has made great progress since this crisis exploded into international news in 2002, we have much work that still must be done to help those who have been victimized heal, to seek justice for all those who have been harmed, and to make sure this will never occur again. We must see this as an ongoing process and be ever vigilant against any scenarios that could betray the trust and dignity of our young people. For those who've been harmed, they will often spend the rest of their lives seeking healing and recovery from these devastating crimes. As a body of believers, we must be present to their needs and strong advocates for healing and support. We must also remember those victims who never made it into recovery and succumbed to the effects of the abuse, including those who died from suicide and substance abuse. We must also pray for the families and friends of those who have suffered, as they have often carried a heavy burden with those they love.

As is so often the case when any part of our body hurts, we feel the pain radiating out into every extremity. So it is with this wound that has affected our whole Church. We all have suffered from these hideous crimes, egregious failures of leadership, a caustic lack of accountability, and the chilling indifference that hardens hearts and crushes the human spirit. But we are capable of a better, more compassionate, more Christ-like response. As in all things, the path to holiness requires on-going conversion. It is something we can all work on, each within our set of circumstances. This weekend, we begin with prayer, once again. Each of us can do our part to open our hearts in an ever greater way to those who have suffered. We can learn to become better advocates and friends to those who have suffered. We can work on being better listeners. We can ask God to make us more compassionate companions to victims and their families. We can double our efforts to work for justice, to right the wrongs that enabled any of this to occur within our

March for Life

Three members of our Collaborative, Chris Eagan, Ed Laverty and Steve Swochak, traveled on a bus, with 48 Pilgrims including two priests and two brothers, to Washington D.C. this year for the 45th annual March for Life. All three have marched before. They traveled to D.C.

as witness to encourage our leaders to overturn the 1973 Supreme Court decision for abortion on demand that takes away the right of pre-born babies to live and harms women physically and emotionally. Since then, 59 million little boys and girls have been denied life.

In addition to the March for Life, they participated in Mass

(Steve helped with the music), heard pro-life speakers, and attended a prayer vigil at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

At the March they were surprisingly joined by John Olds from our Collaborative, who attends college in the D.C. area.

Outside the Supreme Court they gathered to hear emotional talks by the group Silent No More who shared their stories of how abortion affected their lives.

They then returned to the bus and headed home. This was a sad but very hopeful trip.

The Supreme Court

"Love Saves Lives" was the theme of this year's march.

Parish Membership

life together as believers. We can surround and support those survivors who speak out and call for change. And we can learn from our collective past failures that healing and peace may be the fruit of our present actions. With God's help, we can do better.

In the Archdiocese, there is a group of dedicated women and men who work every day to reach out to those who have been harmed and are seeking help. The Office of Pastoral Support and Outreach may be reached at (617) 746-5995. Additionally, all of our Collaborative Clergy and Staff members are ready and willing to assist anyone who comes to us in need. Please do not hesitate to approach any of us if we can be of help to you or your family.

I firmly believe that God's love is stronger than even the deepest of wounds and that there can be true and lasting healing from these excruciatingly painful betrayals. Jesus promised us life, and life to its fullest. Let us open ourselves to that promise and gift today.

Fr. Timothy Harrison, Pastor

Scripture Study

Scripture Study will meet on February 4

Father Broderick's Scripture Study will meet on the regular scheduled first Sunday of the month, February 4, at 2:00 p.m. in the IC Parish Center.

This would be an ideal time for interested members of the Collaborative to join the study group as we continue reading St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans. This letter was probably written in Corinth several years prior to Paul's actual arduous voyage to Rome as a prisoner. This is Paul's longest letter and widely considered to be his masterpiece. We will read and discuss Chapters 3-6.

Our beloved teacher, Father Broderick, not only explains the meaning of the Scripture passages, but also presents rich description of the period and places cited, as well as the culture and practices of the people involved. He connects the events in the New Testament to Old Testament prophecies and events, as well as to our own time. This is a worthwhile way to spend an hour and fifteen minutes on a Sunday afternoon. All are invited to attend these sessions and grow in knowledge and faith.

Last fall, we began a new ministry called LANDINGS, a program for Returning Catholics wanting to explore a more active return to the Catholic faith. We are pleased to report it was a success, not just the two additional Catholics that we welcomed back to our church, but also for the active parishioners who participated as well.

A new eight-week LANDINGS has begun. We meet on Monday, February 26 from 7:30-9:00 in the IC Charity Dining Room 114. (Note: this is a change of day, time, and location.)

One reason that many returning Catholics give for attending LANDINGS is that someone asked them! We urge you to think of someone you know who “used to be Catholic” or who attends Mass only occasionally. God just asks us to invite them: the Holy Spirit will do the rest! What greater act of love this year than to reactivate your own faith, or invite someone back home to the church, through LANDINGS especially during the season of Lent? The full participation of every Catholic is a precious gift to our faith community. There is no pressure, just an invitation to explore the possibilities.

To find out more, contact: Dr. Mag McKinnon, 978-462-2724 ext. 7405, mmckinnon@newburyportcatholic.org.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a program for those considering becoming Catholic as adults or youth that have not received the sacraments in the traditional years. Have you been considering it? Please contact Marin Fortune, 978-462-2724 or fortune@newburyportcatholic.org if you would like to learn more about this program.

“Liturgy is not an option nor merely an obligation, not a bonus, but a need—like food and drink, like sleep and work, like friends. We need to gather, listen, give praise and thanks, and share communion. Otherwise, we forget who we are and whose we are, and we can have neither the strength nor the joy to be Christ’s body—present in the world today.”

~the late Joseph Cardinal Bernardin of Chicago

Immaculate Conception School

The IC celebrated Catholic Schools Week with a wide variety of events. The week began with mass on Sunday morning, followed by an Open House at the school. Families and parishioners gathered in the gymnasium for refreshments before touring the classrooms to see the impressive displays of student work.

Monday's Special Person Luncheon, themed “You Mean the World to Me,” welcomed over 350 guests to share a meal with their IC student. With the help of parent volunteers and the 8th graders, a delicious lunch of lasagna, pizza, salad, rolls, cookies, and coffee was served in the beautifully decorated school cafeteria. The week also included student performing arts—a Wax Museum and Talent Show. A school-wide “buddy” Service Project paired our younger students with older role models to make Valentine's Day placemats for seniors and Veterans who live in local facilities. The week ended with a motivational speaker and a dress-down day to show our support for the Patriots! It was a wonderful week together, celebrating our Catholic faith!

Mardi Gras Celebration

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION PARISH

IC Religious Education

Amoris Laetitia...Pope Francis

Pope Francis released the Exhortation on the Family. We continue to review the various statements from the Holy Father.

The World of Emotions: In #145: Marital love strives to ensure that one's entire emotional life benefits the family as a whole and stands at the service of its common life. A family is mature when the emotional life of its members becomes a form of sensitivity that neither stifles nor obscures great decisions and values, but rather follows each one's freedom, springs from it, enriches, perfects and harmonizes it in the service of all.
