From the Parochial Vicar

As far as I am concerned, a “must see” in Rome is the Villa Borghese and its fabulous art collection, especially its magnificent sculpture collection. One of those pieces is portrayed on the cover of this week’s bulletin: Gian Lorenzo Bernini’s life size “David” sculpted in 1623 and completed in just seven months in 1624 for Cardinal Scipione Borghese’s villa where it remains to this day. Filled with intensity, every detail of this statue is worth absorbing as it tells the story found in the Bible, 1 Samuel 17.

The mighty Philistine army is on the march preparing to invade Israel. Israel’s army is led by King Saul and they are preparing their defense against this invasion. At some point a Philistine, Goliath, a giant of a man and a battle seasoned veteran, issues a challenge: let’s not have a bloody battle where many lives will be lost. Instead, let’s have a one-on-one duel and the winner takes all! The Israelites are terrified and no one comes forward to take Goliath up on his offer. Until, of course, David comes upon the scene.

David is the youngest of eight brothers and he has been sent to the front lines by his father, Jesse, to bring food and provisions to his brothers and to their commanding officers. David hears of Goliath’s challenge and presents himself to King Saul to volunteer. At first the King objects because of David’s age and his inexperience in battle. But David relates to him his experience as a shepherd and how, in protecting his father’s sheep, he had killed a lion once and a bear at another time. With no one else volunteering, King Saul finally accepts David’s offer to battle Goliath. Preparing David for the battle, King Saul dresses him in his tunic, his armor, his helmet and his sword. David, of course, has never worn battle gear and he can hardly walk. Confronting Goliath with all this “stuff” he was not used to wearing would have been the end of David! Removing all this, he goes to the river bed, takes a few smooth stones, gets his shepherd’s staff and his sling, prays to God “who delivered me from the claws of the lion and the bear, will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” He is ready!

David enters the battle not on Goliath’s terms, but with trust in God’s power and using his own abilities—this was not the first time he used a sling and a stone—he confronts the giant who is both insulted and amused at who is coming against him. The duel is short, it does not last long. David has great maneuverability and freedom while Goliath is rather stationary—waiting for hand-to-hand combat that never comes. With sling and stone, David is victorious over the Philistine.

We all encounter Goliaths in life, someone, something, some situation ready to swallow us up, to do us in, and to tear us down. David is a model for us showing us to rely on our own abilities and on “Him whose power at work in us can do more that we could ask for or even imagine.” (Ephesians 4:20)

Landings

The Collaborative of Holy Redeemer and Immaculate Conception has started LANDINGS, a welcome program for returning Catholics. LANDINGS invites returning Catholics to return to a more active practice of their faith. We ask for your support in finding both active Catholic parishioners who would be willing to work in this ministry and potential returning Catholics who would benefit from it.

LANDINGS is a lay ministry that has operated successfully in faith communities in the United States and around the world since 1989. Based on small groups, the LANDINGS program offers "a safe place to land," a place for listening and for being heard, a place for asking questions and for reconnecting with the faith as an adult. During the eight-week program, a small group of active Catholics, some of them "returnees" themselves, meets with a small group of returning Catholics to share and explore their faith together.

"Ask a Priest"

Only two more sessions remain for Ask a Priest: August 25 and September 1. Join us from 6:00–8:00 p.m. We start at St. James Chapel and walk to Inn Street together, or you can just meet us there. All are welcome.

"Ask a Priest" Review

Let's take a look at what we have been doing on Friday evenings this summer. I would like to invite all those who spent time "hanging out" with us on Inn Street to a time of prayer, sharing, and celebration. The shared experience of all participants can help us plan future outreach opportunities. Let's gather together on Friday, September 8 beginning at 6:30 p.m., Saint James Chapel in the IC Parish Center.

Scripture Study

Scripture Study will meet on August 27

Father Broderick's Scripture Study will meet on August 27 at 2:00 p.m. in the IC Nazareth Library, Room 205.

Interested members of the Collaborative are invited to join the study group as we read and discuss The Acts of the Apostles, Chapters 14 through 18. In this second book, written between 80 and 90 A.D., Luke continues the story of Christianity in the first century. These chapters describe the expansion of the Church to include Gentiles and communities beyond Jerusalem. These chapters move beyond the leadership of St. Peter and the Church in Jerusalem to St. Paul's leadership in expanding the Church to the Gentiles of places beyond as he outreached from Antioch.

Our beloved teacher, Father Broderick, not only explains the meaning of the Scripture passages, but also presents rich description of the period and places cited, as well as the culture and practices of the people involved. He connects the events in the New Testament to Old Testament prophecies and events, as well as to our own time. This is a worthwhile way to spend an hour and fifteen minutes on a Sunday afternoon. All are invited to attend these sessions and grow in knowledge and faith.

Centering Prayer

Welcome All Members of Our Collaborative Family

Please join us on Wednesdays from 6:00pm–7:00pm in the IC Nazareth Library to learn more about this simple yet powerful prayer practice.

The daily practice of Centering Prayer, resting silently in God, facilitates the process of inner transformation. Our prayer without words is one of intention to surrender to God's presence and action in our lives and desire for a closer relationship with God. As God moves us closer to him, through our daily discipline of silent prayer, we find our focus turns from self to God and we are blessed with the fruits of Centering Prayer.

Please consider joining us as we pray in this ancient Christian tradition and together deepen our understanding of this prayer in our own spiritual journey. For information please contact Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483 or visit our website at <http://www.hricatholic.org/Get-Involved>.

HR Prayer Shawl

Do you know of any woman, man, or child who needs comfort and could use a Blessed Prayer Shawl or Lap Blanket? Please call Helen Kelley 978-771-4673 or Terry Duhamel 978-384-8099 for a shawl or more information.

We would love for you to join us. We meet on the first Thursday of every month at Nativity Hall, Merrimac, at 1:00pm. Don’t know how to crochet or knit, we will teach you and give you yarn. Our next meeting is Thursday, September 7 at 1:00 p.m.

Holy Redeemer Holiday Fair

The Holiday Fair is a long-running tradition at Holy Redeemer. It is held the Saturday before Thanksgiving at the Nativity Hall. Gift baskets, homemade soups, silent auction items, and nearly new items are available. The 2017 Fair will be November 18 from 9:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m. Mark your calendars now for this fun event.

Empty Baskets Needed

If anyone has empty baskets that are in good condition to be used for the fair, please leave in the back of either church no later than Sunday, September 17. That will give the committee time to spray paint baskets “outside” with matching colors!

Get Creative: we will be looking for donated gift baskets for our fair. Now is a good time to start picking up those “special items” to create your own themed baskets.

Immaculate Conception School

Dear IC Parishioners,

Excitement is in the air as we approach the official start of the school year! Over the summer I have had the pleasure of meeting many of the dedicated parents of current students and past graduates who help to extend the educational experience for the IC children. I am so impressed by the extent to which so many individuals go to provide for our students. Enrichment programs, special events and annual traditions enhance the learning and social experience that we offer. Well-developed marketing efforts, strategic plans, and analysis of our operations all contribute to the overall strength of the IC. Beyond the countless number of hours of planning and time spent in the building, these remarkable adults serve as role models for our students. Through their service to our school they are examples of God's devotion and love. I am grateful for the opportunity to work with such dedicated individuals whose commitment to their faith and to the IC is a blessing and a gift.

With gratitude and thanks,

Joan Fowler Sullivan, Principal

IC Online Giving

Immaculate Conception Parish provides Online Giving—a convenient and safe way to make a one-time or a recurring (weekly) donation. Getting started is easy—you need to be a registered member of Immaculate Conception Parish community. (At this time, Online Giving is available for only IC members.) Registration forms are available in the foyer of the church or at the parish office. Once you register, visit our website, hricatholic.org and click the "Links" tab, then click on "Online Giving" to get to the site. There are four different funds you can choose to contribute to. If you manage your other bills online, why not give to your Church online? It is safe and secure and you get to decide exactly when and to where your gift will be made. Any questions? Contact Linda Temple, IC Administrative Assistant 978-462-2724 x7404.

Amoris Laetitia...Pope Francis

Pope Francis released the Exhortation on the Family. We continue to review the various statements from the Holy Father.

Love bears all things: In #113: Married couples joined by love speak well of each other; they try to show their spouse's good side, not their weakness and faults. In any event, they keep silent rather than speak ill of them. This is not merely a way of acting in front of others; it springs from an interior attitude. Far from ingenuously claiming not to see the problems and weaknesses of others, it sees those weaknesses and faults in a wider context. It recognizes that these failings are a part of a bigger picture. We have to realize that all of us are a complex mixture of light and shadows. The other person is much more than the sum of the little things that annoy me. Love does not have to be perfect for us to value it. The other person loves me as best they can, with all their limits, but the fact that love is imperfect does not mean that it is untrue or unreal. It is real, albeit limited and earthly. If I expect too much, the other person will let me know, for he or she can neither play God nor serve all my needs. Love coexists with imperfection. It "bears all things" and can hold its peace before the limitations of the loved one.
