Pentecost Sunday
Caution: Spirit at Work

If Pentecost celebrates the gifts of the Spirit, it can tempt us to separate the Spirit from the Father and Jesus. Sometimes we think of the Father as the God of the Old Testament, Jesus as center of New Testament, and the Spirit as God of the present age, almost as if the Father and Jesus were enjoying their retirement. No, we have one God who is over all and in all.

The Spirit has been active in all ages. The prophets were empowered by the Spirit to proclaim God's word to Israel. Jesus was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus was filled with the Spirit as he preached and worked miracles. Then at Pentecost the disciples were filled with the Spirit.

The Spirit's gifts are meant to be shared. The prophets could not help proclaim God's message. Jesus shared all he knew with his disciples. The disciples went out to the world to spread the news of Jesus' death and resurrection. So we, too, are given gifts to be shared.

As we come to realize how much God has done for us and how close he is to us, we will want to share that with others. Obviously, we can't make everyone believe in Jesus. But how sad would it be if someone we know was looking for the truth and we neglected to offer it?

Thank You

We would like to thank Fr. Bill

Sheahan for all of his help the past year. He has received a new assignment. We wish him all the best in the future!

Domingo de Pentecostés Precaución: Espíritu Trabajando

Si Pentecostés celebra los dones del Espíritu, puede tentarnos a separar el Espíritu del Padre y Jesús. A veces pensamos en el Padre como el Dios del Antiguo Testamento, Jesús como centro del Nuevo Testamento, y el Espíritu como Dios de la era actual, casi como si el Padre y Jesús estuvieran disfrutando de su jubilación. No, tenemos un Dios que está sobre todos y en todos.

El Espíritu ha participado activamente en todas las edades. Los profetas estaban facultados por el Espíritu para proclamar la palabra de Dios a Israel. Jesús fue concebido por el poder del Espíritu Santo. Jesús estaba lleno del Espíritu cuando él predicó y obró milagros. Luego en Pentecostés los discípulos fueron llenos del Espíritu.

Los dones del Espíritu son para ser compartidos. Los profetas no podían dejar de proclamar el mensaje de Dios. Jesús compartió todo lo que sabía con sus discípulos. Los discípulos salieron al mundo para difundir la noticia de la muerte y resurrección de Jesús. Así que, a nosotros también, se nos dieron regalos para compartir.

A medida que nos damos cuenta de lo mucho que Dios ha hecho por nosotros y lo cerca que está de nosotros, vamos a querer compartirlo con los demás. Obviamente, no podemos hacer que todos crean en Jesús. Pero qué triste sería si alguien que conocemos estaba buscando la verdad y nos negamos a ofrecerla?

Muchas GRACIAS

Nos gustaría dar las gracias al Padre Bill

Sheahan por toda su ayuda el pasado año. El ha recibido una nueva asignación. Le deseamos todo lo mejor en el futuro!
