THANK YOU On behalf of the Conrad Lauinger family, we extend our heartfelt thanks to Father James Gross for the compassion he showed to our mother, Rose, and our father, Conrad. They appreciated his visits to their home and his many prayers and blessings. We would also like to thank the vocalist and pianist for the beautiful music that helped us celebrate our father's life at his funeral Mass. We are also very appreciative of the volunteers who gave their time to serve the delicious meal following the Mass. A big thank you to all our fellow parishioners for their support and many prayers for our father, Conrad, and his family!

Parish Events and Happenings

THANK YOU from the organization And Then There Were None: “Dear Parishioners of St. Anthony of Padua of Fargo- Thank you for your generous gift of $1,379.85 [from Lenten Canister Giving]. Already this year we have helped 325 clinic workers and seven abortionists leave the abortion industry. Every clinic worker who leaves their job with our financial assistance is a victory for life - and a witness to the abortion industry’s cruelty, lies and corruption. Your donations help these workers get by until they find new jobs. We appreciate all you have done for our ministry”. Sincerely, Abby Johnson

Mount St. Mary’s Seminary, Emmitsburg, MD, Theology III
St. Alphonsus Parish, Langdon, ND

1. Who was the most influential person to you as a child? From the beginning to the end of my life, it is Jesus!!!
2. Did you have any pets as a child? What kind? I had a dog, two turtles, rabbits, a pair of birds, fish but not at the same time. Once I had a lobster as a pet.
3. What did you do during the summertime as a child? I grew up in Seoul, which is a mega city. Summer was the only time to get away from busy life. Camping, hiking, traveling and things like that I enjoyed most. And some extra studies which I was asked to do. Once I spent a whole summer on my uncle’s farm.
4. What would people you know find surprising about you as a teen? People said I looked smart and studious at first sight but... I did not love what I learned, especially in high school, that much.
5. In what ways have your parents influenced you the most? Through my parents, I received the Catholic faith. And, through their sacrifice and devotion, I had a good education and life.
6. What is your most memorable travel experience? I traveled Europe alone as a backpacker for two months one summer when I was in university. I experienced God’s care and protection on that trip.

8. What is something that you’d love to be great at? Spiritual healing for souls. I want to be a priest who is really great at healing and consoling wounded souls.
9. What is one lesson you’ve learned in life? Surrender to God and rely on Him.
10. What is something you’ve learned about the faith since entering seminary? Faith grows consistently through academic formation.
