Easter Greetings
From Fr. Tom Reilly

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Happy Easter! The following passage from the Vatican II document, The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, illustrates the Easter Mystery.

... Christians state their belief that all human activity ... is to find its purification and its perfection in the cross and resurrection of Christ.

... The Word of God ... reveals to us that God is love, and at the same time teaches us that the fundamental law of human perfection, and therefore of the transformation of the world, is the new commandment of love.

He assures those who have faith in God's love that the way of love is open to all men, and that the effort to restore universal brotherhood is not in vain. At the same time he warns us that this love is not to be sought after in great things but also, and above all, in the ordinary circumstances of life.

... Constituted as the Lord by his resurrection, Christ, to whom all power in heaven and on earth has been given, is still at work in the hearts of men through the power of his Spirit. Not only does he awaken in them a longing for the world to come, but by that very fact he also inspires, purifies and strengthens those generous desires by which the human family seeks to make its own life more human and to achieve the same goal for the whole world.

... He makes all free, so that, by denying their love of self and taking up all earth's resources into the life of man, all may reach out to the future, when humanity itself will become an offering acceptable to God.

You are remembered in my Masses and prayers!

In Christ and Mary,

Fr. Tom Reilly

He Is Risen! The Resurrection of Jesus

After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing was white as snow. The guards were shaken with fear of him and became like dead men. Then the angel said to the women in reply, "Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Matthew 28:1-6

In the next line the angel instructs the women to "[...]go quickly and tell His disciples".

As His disciples we are to receive this instruction personally as we evangelize others. We who are in the world are obliged by our Baptismal call to spread The Good News of Jesus to all we meet; in the work place, in our recreational activities and most importantly in our homes! We do not have to preach as our priests and deacons do; however, by imitating the life of Jesus we become His disciples and "preach" by the lives we live.

May you enjoy all the blessings of this beautiful Easter Season!

Mary Ann Thomas

HAPPY EASTER! Jesus is Risen! Let Us Sing! Praise to the ever lasting King! Special thanks to all musicians, choir directors, and singers for ALL you do! Know that you are appreciated. A blessed and beautiful Easter season to all. Sue Forbes

From Deacon Jack

You know - God has a way of taking every shared moment of our lives & bathing it - in the glory of the cross. For 40 days – our image of the risen Christ was covered now it's revealed. Jesus has indeed gone through death & now on this day there's the mystery of new life.

Jesus included in his kingdom - all people who came to him. So today - is a day for us to rejoice, for today we bask in the love of God, which holds nothing back, which never abandons us or lets us down.

Happy Easter, Deacon Jack

*From Deacon
Tam Tran*

Easter brings Fun, Easter brings Happiness, Easter brings God endless Blessings, and Easter brings fresh Love...The spirit of Easter is all about Hope, Love and Joyful living. Easter is a promise God renews to us in each spring.

May the promise of Easter fill your heart with peace and joy. May Lord bless you and your family on this auspicious day of Easter, and may it be a new beginning of greater prosperity, success and happiness.

Wish you a Happy Easter, Deacon Tam

Confirmation Coordinator*

Alleluia, Alleluia, Praise the Lord...

What a journey, Lent is never an easy season to venture for the believer. How did I do with my journey? Did I skip the Lenten journey and fast forward to today, Easter Sunday? Did I start off committed then as time moved me forward my journey became but a memory from my prior week? Or was this Lent the most focused I was on the temptations that surround me daily?

Interesting concept, rising from the dead, I know so many wonderful people alive who are a bit dead inside when it comes to actually living their Baptismal promise. They are so nice to some but not so nice to others or they pray to their private God and forget about their faith community who misses them, needs them, and prays for their return because together we move forward while here on earth. Rising from the dead is why we are here, together we live so we can die, die to death, and rise in Christ. Alleluia! If we don't believe Jesus rose from the dead then why are we here? If we don't believe Jesus is present in our Eucharistic Feast to give us the needed strength to move forward then why are we here? We are a people of faith who have been Baptized, we believe that with God all things are possible, and we trust Jesus rose from the dead given our apostolic succession from Peter his Apostle to our very own Pope Francis.

Good news, Lenten journeys are filled with grace, mercy, blessings, and so much more when we believe with our entire being and reconciled given the Sacrament of Reconciliation, our new beginning through this very important Sacrament. Pope Francis recently announced The Jubilee of Mercy will be the new theme for this upcoming year of faith. "The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice and I know them." When we come together as a prayerful and believing community of faith there is nothing we can't overcome including doubt and evil but we all need to be present.

So please consider scheduling only 45± minutes a week for Mass anywhere in the world. At least 5 minutes a day for prayer and at least 2 minutes a day of prayerful silence so we can hear God talk to us. The rest of each day let's continue to keep it filled with the grace and mercy God bestows upon all of us because we are here to do his will working side by side for the greater good with sincere love, compassion, and an abundance of patience.

Alleluia means Praise the Lord and so let's do just that today and wish each other a very Blessed Easter Season to all we hold dear and particularly for those who may be estranged for they too need our love. Let's begin to reflect and pray about how we will make The Jubilee of Mercy a year to continue and experience our conversion of heart, mind, and soul. God loves us so dearly if we just slow down and listen we'll hear him calling us to his greater glory which is not of this world but our reward for a job well done while on this journey we call life. Pax Christi, Nancy

Religious Education Coordinator*

A Thought About Faith and Family.... Pope Francis has lifted up the Domestic Church (my family and yours) since His appointment. He challenges us with these words of encouragement: "The family remains the basic unit of society and the first school in which children learn the human, spiritual and moral values which enable them to be beacons of goodness, integrity and justice in our communities." Do we need to say more? The vocation of Parenthood is an awesome privilege, and requires constant "intentional acts of kindness" and love to allow a child's light to burn bright. Just as there is nothing "random" about God's act of love or kindness for humanity, so, too, are Christian acts of kindness intentional as they model the love of the Father. This Easter I invite you to celebrate with "intentional acts of kindness and love" towards one another starting with our families. Let us be beacons for others, let us plant seeds of kindness and love - with intention - to foster a community of goodness, integrity and justice which supports families' desire to pass on their faith traditions and participation within their faith communities.

A Happy and Holy Easter to all. Paula Colpitts

From Deacon Al

You and I are called to begin to live now, at this moment, in a new way, as people who believe that God has claimed first place in our lives. If we were to find out today that the world was really going to end tomorrow, we wouldn't bother to clean the house, fix the deck or worry about a bunch of minutia. All our efforts would be concentrated on the only thing that matters, making sure that we're ready to be part of the Kingdom of God. We hear time and time again that the Kingdom of God is here and now and we're called to choose freely and honestly to follow the suffering and risen Jesus and to serve others along the way. Easter along with Holy Week activities and the passion helps us to see Jesus more clearly. Through him we can come to know God's great love for all people and by our faith we can see Jesus pointing out our final goal, an intimate return to a union with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. All of us are invited to a shared life with the Trinity, now and in the future. The resurrection of Jesus indicates our own resurrection and by our faith we should see our need to grow as his disciples.

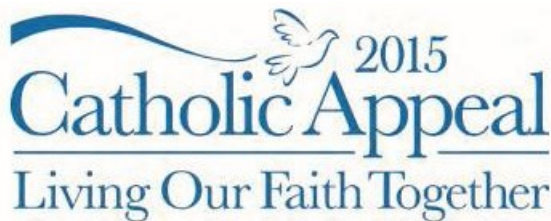

Our church community is what it is because of each and every one of you who serve and pray here and I am happy and grateful to serve you. My prayer is for a happy and blessed Easter for all and that God, Our Father, will bless us each and every one.

Deacon Alfred O. Balestracci

Today we celebrate the victory of light over darkness, of truth over sin, and of life over death through Christ Jesus' resurrection. This peak of human history gives Christians the reason to hope and live in the same love that Christ lived, died, and was resurrected in. This Christian love resounds in our hearts differently, but we each are called to participate in living out Christ's sacrificial love with the Church. In this spirit, please join with St. Theresa Parish in our commitment to support the 50 central ministries of the Archdiocese of Boston through the Catholic Appeal. Please complete one of the pledge forms in the back of the church or make a gift online at:

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12, 2015

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday!

How should we prepare for this great Feast of Mercy?

12:00 pm Holy Mass

1:00 - 2:00 pm Confessions Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

2:00 pm Most Holy Rosary

3:00 - 4:00 pm "Hour of Great Mercy" - Novena and Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when "all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened". Jesus promised that "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary 699) He went on to say "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy." (Diary 1109). This Feast is on the Sunday after Easter, which is now called Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Catholic Church. The Church says that if the Confession is made 20 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday, this would suffice.

Jesus said about "Divine Mercy Sunday": "...tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners.... I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me.... Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy". (Diary 699)

Our Lord said "When you go to confession, to this fountain of My mercy, the Blood and Water which came forth from My Heart always flows down upon your soul..." and "Every time you go to confession, immerse yourself entirely in My mercy with great trust, so that I may pour the bounty of My grace upon your soul. When you approach the confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of mercy" (1602) Make your confession before Me. The person of the priest is... only a screen. Never analyze what sort of a priest that I am making use of; open your soul in confession to Me, and I will fill it with My light." (1725)

We want to encourage everyone to take advantage of this incredible promise and the additional Plenary Indulgence on "Divine Mercy Sunday". Our prayer is that you benefit fully from these promises; please tell all of your family and friends about them too and urge them to return to the practice of their faith!

The Image of The Divine Mercy, which Our Lord requested to be solemnly blessed and venerated on this day, will be on display in our church. Our Lord said "...and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish". (Diary 341, 48) Please take the time to visit with this Image of The Divine Mercy and venerate Jesus.
