6:00-6:45 pm Adoration, Rosary & Confession
7:00 pm Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
8:15pm Teaching and opportunity for personal prayer with Frank.

All are welcome!

*May all those Remembered
Here Rejoice in the Resurrection of the Lord*

The following names were not printed in the Easter bulletin

Albert, Florence and Paul Fitzpatrick
Kathleen L. Holland Duschinski

Our bulletin cover shows the painting of the Image of the Divine Mercy, generously donated by two parishioners (photo credit: Kathi Lee). Our Lord requested that this Image be blessed and venerated on Divine Mercy Sunday.

Jesus, I trust in trust in thee.

From Fr. Tom Reilly

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For our preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday, I offer the following reflection from Jesus to Saint Faustina in the early 1930s. Jesus said to Saint Faustina:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy.

The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity.

The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy. (Diary Entry #699)

Yes. The first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy.... I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere. You must not shrink from this or try to excuse or absolve yourself from it (#742).

Thus, to observe Divine Mercy Sunday in a solemn way, we should:

1. Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter;
2. Truly repent of all our sins;
3. Place our full trust in Jesus;
4. Go to Confession, preferably before that Sunday;
5. Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast;
6. Venerate the Image of The Divine Mercy. (To venerate a sacred image or statue means to perform some act of make some gesture of deep religious respect toward it because of the person whom it represents; in this case, our Most Merciful Savior);
7. Be merciful to others by our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf.

The schedule for Divine Mercy Sunday, April 12, 2015, at St. Theresa's is:

12:00 pm Holy Mass

1:00 - 2:00 pm Confessions, Exposition, and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

2:00 pm Most Holy Rosary

3:00 pm "Hour of Great Mercy" - Novena and Chaplet of Divine Mercy,
Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Peace,

Fr. Tom Reilly

Monday Evening Rosary Beginning April 13 7:00pm in the Prayer Room

We, as a Parish, will come together to pray the Rosary beginning on Monday, April 13 and every Monday thereafter at 7:00pm in the Prayer Room. We will be led by the Legion of Mary, praying to our Blessed Mother and the Holy Spirit for our parish and the whole world against the evil that is trying to get a foothold all around us. The Rosary is a most powerful weapon against wickedness. Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Meet Fr. Joe— Answering the call with compassion

For Gary and Susan Pickering, Fr. Joe Mazzone is more than a pastor—he is family.

Like so many priests in our Archdiocese, Fr. Joe has been a source of strength and support, helping others find Christ's presence in times of joy and sorrow. When Gary and Susan's daughter Marcy passed away unexpectedly during surgery, Fr. Joe was the first person they called. Marcy had been a close friend of Fr. Joe's, and her faith life had blossomed with his help through challenging times in her life. Fr. Joe was there for the Pickerings as they said goodbye to their beloved Marcy then, and he remains by their side today. Together, they continue to grow in faith and friendship, confident that they will be reunited with Marcy again, and grateful for the hope they receive through each other in Christ Jesus.

Our priests are there for us and our families without question or hesitation. Please consider showing your gratitude by supporting your parish collection this Easter.

Thank you for helping to ensure a continuum of care and quality of life for all our active and senior priests.

“Support your priests with your love and prayers, that they may always be shepherds after Christ’s heart.”

- Pope Francis

To submit your special intentions to be remembered by our senior priests during the celebration of Holy Mass at Regina Cleri each week, visit www.clergyfunds.org/intentions.
