Thank you for your prayers and support.

*From
Fr. Tom Reilly*

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our Gospel today speaks to us about Jesus, our Good Shepherd. The following passage from a homily given by Pope St. Gregory the Great (d. 604) is a wonderful reflection for us:

I am the good shepherd. I know my own - by which I mean, I love them - and my own know me. In plain words: those who love me are willing to follow me, for anyone who does not love the truth has not yet come to know it.

... Ask yourselves whether you belong to his flock, whether you know him, whether the light of his truth shines in your minds. I assure you that it is not by faith that you will come to know him, but by love; not by mere conviction, but by action. John the evangelist is my authority for this statement. He tells us that anyone who claims to know God without keeping his commandments is a liar.

... Again [the Lord] says: My sheep hear my voice, and I know them; they follow me, and I give them eternal life. Shortly before this he had declared: If anyone enters the sheepfold through me he shall be saved; he shall go freely in and out and shall find good pasture. He will enter into life of faith; from faith he will go out to vision, from belief to contemplation, and will graze in the good pastures of everlasting life.

So our Lord's sheep will finally reach their grazing ground where all who follow him in simplicity of heart will feed on the green pastures of eternity. These pastures are the spiritual joys of heaven. There the elect look upon the face of God with unclouded vision and feast at the banquet of life for ever more.

Beloved brothers, let us set out for these pastures where we shall keep joyful festival with so many of our fellow citizens. May the thought of their happiness urge us on! Let us stir up our hearts, rekindle our faith, and long eagerly for what heaven has in store for us. To love thus is to be already on our way. No matter what obstacles we encounter, we must not allow them to turn us aside from the joy of the heavenly feast. Anyone who is determined to reach his destination is not deterred by the roughness of the road that leads to it. Nor must we allow the charm of success to seduce us, or we shall be like a foolish traveler who is so distracted by the pleasant meadows through which he is passing that he forgets where he is going.

(Liturgy of the Hours, Vol II, pgs 752-754)

Peace,
Fr. Tom Reilly

Special Collection:
Home Missions , Black & Native
American, and Military Archdiocese
Weekend of April 25/26

Today's special collection supports three important national Catholic missions. The Military Archdiocese collection provides for Catholic chaplains throughout the world for American servicemen and servicewomen. The Home Missions collection subsidizes the evangelization and formation activities of mission dioceses. The Black and Native American collection strengthens evangelization and outreach programs which would otherwise be in danger of disappearing among the Black, American Indian, Eskimo, and Aleut communities of the United States. May Procession

~ Mother's Day ~

May 10 after the 9:00 am
Mass

All are invited to participate in a procession
in honor of our Blessed Mother.

We will gather together in the parish hall where all receive carnations. At this time, one of our First Communicants will be selected to crown the statue of Mary. We then process with the accompaniment of our Children's Choir around the church and to the place where the statue of Mary is situated at the entrance of the Parish Center (weather permitting) in case of rain we will process into the church. With hymns and flowers parishioners gather around the statue and place their flowers in vases surrounding the Blessed Virgin.

This devotion to our Blessed Mother also provides an opportunity for our First Communicants to once again wear the special clothes they wore when they received their First Holy Communion.

What a beautiful way to acknowledge Mary, the Mother of Jesus and the Church.

As we do this we also recognize all mothers living and deceased; as well as those who hope to become mothers.
