Walk For Life Update

St. Bernadette's is proud to announce that the bus for the Walk For Life on January 24th is currently full! We are so grateful for all the prayers and sponsors donations for making this trip possible. Fr. Johnpeter will be celebrating Mass prior to the walk at 9:00 am on the 24th for those who wish to arrive early and attend. All are welcome. Also, please remember to bring a lunch, lots of water, and a cell phone with you on the bus. The bus will be leaving The parking lot of St. Bernadette's at 9:45AM. It cannot wait for anyone who arrives late. Fr. Johnpeter will be thanking all of our sponsors in a Mass in the coming week for their support of this event. Many of our parishioners cannot walk the long distance required and so have someone walking and praying in their place.

February Birthday Party

Treasures From Our Tradition

Old customs fade slowly, and in 1560 the Council of Trent tried for significant change in pastoral care of the sick. People resisted, thinking that the last breath was the right time for the sacrament. Although physical improvement was often noted after anointing, it was seen as a kind of bonus, rather than an expected outcome of a prayer for good health, strength, patience, and even healing. More than four hundred years later, many people still do not ask for anointing until it is literally too late for the person to have reasonable hope of healing, or at least be aware enough to participate in the ritual. By then, it may even be too late for viaticum, the true "last rite." We have a treasure in our tradition that we seem reluctant to use. We visit the sick, we anoint those who are in the first crisis of illness, we give Communion to those who are dying, and we keep vigil and pray for those close to death. When anointing is celebrated early enough, optimally when the sick person is still at Sunday Mass, it can be a source of courage, faith, and hope for a difficult road ahead. When we anoint our sick, we remind them that they belong to Christ and a community of faith. We bring them into the presence of Christ to reconcile, heal, and give strength and hope. We resist forces that isolate and alienate the sick; the symbol of touch is a powerful act of acceptance. Why wait until the crisis of illness is dire before we apply such a rich remedy to body and soul?

St. Bernadette's Ladies Guild will meet in the Msgr. Liam Moore Hall for a 9AM breakfast the second Saturday of each Month. No dues. Everyone Welcome!

Next meeting is February 14th.
