

July 12, 2015 ~ Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

~Jesus Invites... St. Joan of Arc Welcomes~

Rain began to fall on the small crowd gathered at the gravesite. The forlorn widower watched as his wife's casket was lowered into the grave. The minister raced through the final prayers to beat the storm. As he finished, a flash of lightning struck, and the widower sighed with relief and said, "Well, she's arrived." After sending the new disciples off on their first mission of evangelization, Jesus may well have wondered how they were doing. Perhaps some distant lightning may have assured him that the disciples were doing just fine!

ST. PATRICK CHURCH - MT. ERIN CEMETERY

Burial space is available. Mt. Erin is part of St.
Patrick Church in Havre de Grace and is off of Rt.
155 on Graceview Drive. It overlooks the Susquehanna River and the Chesapeake Bay.
There are basically three types of burial spaces available in the cemetery. 1) Regular Burial plots for interment of caskets, 2) Smaller Burial plots for In-Ground Cremains (cremations), and 3) Above ground niches in our Columbarium for Cremains (ashes). Recently we opened a new section which expands our capacity allowing us to reach out to all Catholics in the area seeking a Catholic Cemetery.
If you have questions regarding Mt. Erin please contact John Hamilton (410-688-4818) or St.
Patrick Office (410-939-2525).
