The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic

Matthew Kelly has done it again!

As a leading protagonist for Catholicism, he has written another book entitled The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic.

This is a 'must read' for anyone who wants to deepen their Catholic identity. It is available in paperback, and can be ordered at DynamicCatholic.com. I am not going to spoil the plot by telling you what the four signs are. One thing I will tell you about the book, however, is it suggests that as Catholics, we do not know as much about our faith as we think we should. He goes so far as suggesting some of us have an inferiority complex about our lack of knowledge about Catholicism.

Because I am an Ambassador of the Dynamic Catholic organization, I got an advance copy of the book and read it the first time in two days. Now I am reviewing it more leisurely to catch some of the nuances I might have missed the first time. The book hit me so intensely that I am facilitating three classes consisting of eight sessions at my work parish. If anyone is interested in forming a class here at Resurrection, I will be happy to set it up and facilitate it. I will get the books for the class. Email me at bill.ducere@gmail.com.

THE 2013 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS UNDERWAY

"THE LORD SUSTAINS HIS PEOPLE"

The 2013 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal begins with a mailing that many of our parishioners have received or will soon receive. This is a mailing from Bishop Conlon asking for a pledge to the 2013 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal.

The Appeal not only funds many of the operations of the diocese, it funds services that are of great help to the ministries here in our parish. For example, funds support Adult Faith Formation in our community, liturgical training, and the Diaconate training program in which Kevin Koster is enrolled.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is "The Lord Sustains His People." The Lord sustains each of us in many ways. His life, death and resurrection were all gifts to each of us. He gives us all that we have. He gave us our Church. That Church, through our parish, our diocese, and throughout the world offers us not only spiritual but many other forms of sustenance.

God never forgets us. Even when we believe that our successes are self made, it is His love that sustains each of us. He is always giving to us. His grace is always there for us. One way that we can show our gratitude is by offering our generous financial support to our parish and to our diocese and to the Church throughout the world. The gifts we give enable ministries, education, and services that touch thousands of lives.

Our parish goal is $49,068. With your support, we can reach and exceed this goal.

Please answer Bishop Conlon's request and make a generous pledge. All pledges can be paid in 10 monthly installments. Thank you in advance for your support..

SCRIPTURE STUDY...YEAR OF FAITH !

St. Jerome stated , "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ!"

Let us cherish our Faith and use the following opportunities to learn during the Year of Faith.

EXPLORING THE SPIRITUALITY OF THE GOSPELS promises to do just that...to review the four Gospels in light of content and the Saints and Heroes who model discipleship and answer Jesus' invitation.

On WEDNESDAY, JAN. 23, 7-8:30 pm

Resurrection begins the 16th year of a Winter Semester of Bible Study. See the display in the narthex hallway and seriously reflect about participating.

The FOX VALLEY WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY gives childcare and faith-sharing opportunities to women who want to study on Wed. mornings, 9:15-11:00 am, at St. Peter Church, Geneva. It is a good opportunity for young moms and seniors who prefer daylight travel. Registration forms and instructions are at the display.

Catechism Corner for the Year of Faith

Only when the hour has arrived for his glorification does Jesus promise the coming of the Holy Spirit, since his Death and Resurrection will fulfill the promise made to the fathers. The Spirit of truth, the other Paraclete, will be given by the Father in answer to Jesus' prayer; he will be sent by the Father in Jesus' name; and Jesus will send him from the Father's side, since he comes from the Father. The Holy Spirit will come and we shall know him; he will be with us for ever; he will remain with us. The Spirit will teach us everything, remind us of all that Christ said to us and bear witness to him. The Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth and will glorify Christ. He will prove the world wrong about sin, righteousness, and judgment." (CCC, n. 729)

IN CHRIST
FOREVER

Resurrection Catholic Community extends deepest sympathy to Fred and Mary Ricciardi, and their sons, Matthew and Frank, for the death of Mary's mother, Philomena Fluett. May Philomena and all the faithful departed rest in peace and share in the resurrection of Christ.

Rainbows Ministry for Children

Has your family, or a family that you know of, experienced a loss recently? Has someone in your immediate family died or have you and your spouse suffered a divorce or separation? Are your children grieving a loss in their lives, whether it is a parent, a grandparent or possibly even a sibling? Are they grieving this loss and you just don't know how to handle their grief?

If this sounds familiar, rest assured you are not alone. Here at Resurrection we have a ministry called Rainbows. Rainbows works with children, preschool through high school, who have experienced a loss in their lives. We have in place loving facilitators who meet with children in groups weekly to give them a place to talk, to cry, and to be with other children their age who are also grieving a loss. These groups meet on a weekly basis, Mondays from 6:30 -7:30 pm.

There is no cost to your family to have your child/children to participate in Rainbows. If you feel as though Rainbows may be of help to you and your children, or a family you know, please contact Lorna Miressi at lmiressi@hotmail.com or call (630)-336-0911.
