A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Time for a parish roundup: the capital campaign, the renovation of Cathedral Center, priest assignments, and a liturgical change. I'll start with the capital campaign. Though it looks like not much is happening, there is much happening behind the scenes. A capital campaign subcommittee of the Administrative Council has been meeting almost weekly to plan the next phase of the campaign. We are looking for a part-time fundraising coordinator (in preparation for a full-time director of development) who would research possible donors in the Portland area and beyond. This person would also assist the business manager in other administrative campaign duties. We continue to work with Campbell & Company as consultants.

The renovation of Cathedral Center has met a couple of challenges. We are working with our architects and others to refine the scope and reduce the cost of the renovation. We are challenged by an old building, which is not officially an "historic landmark" but still comes under the purview of the landmark's commission (in our "Alphabet District"). This limits in some ways what we can do in our renovation. Our hope is to cut the cost per square foot, if possible, while maintaining the historic integrity of the building. I'll keep you posted on our progress—it's challenging. To keep the project before our eyes, we will bring back the Cathedral Project Prayer to conclude the Prayer of the Faithful.

By now you have heard that Fr. Tim Furlow has been assigned to St. Patrick Church as administrator. We wish Fr. Tim well as he begins his new assignment; and, because of his proximity, we hope Fr. Tim can participate to some degree in our Cathedral activities. For the summer months, one of our newly-ordained, Fr. Rick LeFaivre, has been assigned to Cathedral. Fr. Rick will be with us until September, when he will return to Rome to complete his studies. It is possible we will have a priest "in-residence" at Cathedral after that. No priest has been assigned as parochial vicar (assistant). In addition, we have a Portland seminarian with us for the summer, Chi-Nhan Vo, a fourth-year college student at Mount Angel. Chi will be working mostly at St. André Bessette, but he will also assist here at Cathedral. A welcome to him and to Fr. Rick!

Today, Corpus Christi Sunday, we will commission all of our Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. Those who have received the recent training will receive a certificate, good for three years. For those yet to be trained, I hope to schedule another training during the month of June. Eventually, all of our extraordinary ministers will have received the new, required training. Those who have not yet been trained should continue as ministers—we need you! Along these liturgical lines, all are reminded that Archbishop Sample has "determined that during the celebration of Holy Mass, after the Agnus Dei, the faithful will kneel." This new posture begins today, a change "that will unite us with the Universal Church."

Msgr. Patrick S. Brennan

CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

Pre-Kindergarten: Building a Foundation for a Lifelong Love of Learning:

Cathedral School's Pre-Kindergarten program offers a safe environment where children can experiment, discover, find independence, and become thinkers. The developmentally appropriate curriculum includes lessons in literacy, math, social studies, science, creative arts, physical education, and religion; and still leaves plenty of time for play. If you have a four-year-old ready for Pre-Kindergarten next year, there is a spot for your child at Cathedral!

Cathedral School is now accepting applications for the 2018-2019 academic year in grades PK-8. For more information visit: www.cathedral-or.org, or call Mrs. Hatley at 503.275.9370 to schedule a tour.

WELCOME!

We would like to extend a warm welcome to all who are visiting St. Mary's Cathedral. Whether you are from a nearby parish, a traveler from out of state, or not a Catholic, we are pleased to have you celebrate with us.
