A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Entire libraries of books have been written on the Resurrection of Jesus, and not surprisingly. The Resurrection is the very foundation of our Christian faith. "If there is no resurrection of the dead," said St. Paul, "then empty is our preaching; empty, too, your faith" (1 Cor 15:13-14). But the Ascension? Whoever talks about the Ascension? Yes, many theologians have written about the Ascension, and it is a matter of Christian dogma, recited in the Creed, but what do we know about it? We don't even know what day to celebrate it! What is the Ascension, and how should we understand it?

This may sound a little strange, but the first thing we must do to understand the Ascension of Jesus is to recover a Jewish sense of heaven and earth. Most of us are influenced by Greek philosophy, as was the early Church. As such, we draw a sharp distinction between the material and spiritual, between earth and heaven, between body and soul. When we die, the soul is released from the body, and the body is cast off, the grain from the husk.

But Jewish thought is quite different. The Jews did not draw a sharp dichotomy between body and soul. Both body and soul make us who we are; both are created in the image of God. In Jewish thought, the important image is transfiguration—not a soul fleeing the body, but a glorified body, a body made perfect. Here, earth and heaven mix, interact, call out to each other, influence each other, touch each other.

And that brings us back to the Ascension. Jesus is with the disciples for 40 days after his Resurrection, "preaching the kingdom." He prepares them for the moment when he will return to the Father—when, body and soul, he will take his place at the right hand of God. I like to describe the Ascension as the reverse of the Incarnation. The Incarnation is Jesus bringing his divinity to earth; the Ascension is taking his glorified humanity into heaven—earth touching heaven, and heaven touching earth.

We see this mix of earth and heaven in so many ways. As Catholics, we have something called the "Catholic imagination." That is, through material things, through great art and architecture, through the lives of the saints, through liturgy, through preaching, through the corporal works of mercy, through the love of husband and wife, through the love of friends—earth touches heaven, and we experience the realm of God. Beauty, good, and truth—all are portals into the transcendent.

Imagine a soaring Gothic cathedral, drawing our eyes upward. Imagine a shimmering icon that reveals the splendor of God. Imagine a piece of music that transports us heavenward. Imagine a liturgy where our voices blend with the angels ("may our voices blend with theirs . . ."). This is the Ascension mystery, earth touching heaven, until that day when there is a new heaven and a new earth, and God draws all things to himself.

Msg. Patrick S. Brennan

WORSHIP ✱ PRAYER ✱ FAITH FORMATION

Baptismal Preparation for Parents of Infants: The next session will be on Thursday, May 17 at 7pm in St. Joseph Hall at the Cathedral Center. Enter from 17th Street.

Ordination of Transitional Deacons: We are invited to the Mass of Ordination at 11am, Saturday, May 19. Two men will be ordained as transitional deacons and continue their studies for ordination as priests. Keep Stephen Cieslak and Stephen Kenyon in your prayers as they continue their journey to the priesthood.

Memorial Day Masses: Masses honoring those who have died and the families that have been served will be held at the two Archdiocesan Catholic Cemeteries on Memorial Day, Monday, May 28. Archbishop Alexander Sample will preside at Mount Calvary Cemetery at 10am in the Cemetery's Altar Garden. Bishop Peter Smith will celebrate Mass at Gethsemani at 10am. All are invited.

Quo Vadis Days– June 18-21: “Quo Vadis” is the Latin phrase for “Where are you going?” Legend tells us that Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father’s will. Quo Vadis Days is a 4-day camp for young Catholic men to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God’s call in their lives. Contact the Office of Vocations for more information at 503.233.8368 or vocations@archdpdx.org.

✱✱✱ CELEBRATIONS IN OUR PARISH THIS PAST WEEK

“Even if the life of a person has been a disaster, even if it is destroyed by vices, drugs, or anything else—God is in this person’s life. You can, you must try to seek God in every human life. Although the life of a person is a land full of thorns and weeds, there is always a space in which the good seed can grow. You have to trust God.”

A Note of Caution: Please do not leave anything of value visible in your car while attending Mass.
