A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

God must love birds. There are nearly 300 verses in the Bible that mention birds, mostly in the Old Testament. One New Testament passage has always been one of my favorites: “Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet, not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge” (Mt 10:29). The verse goes on to explain God’s abiding love and care for us, since we are worth more than many sparrows—but the sparrows are not forgotten!

Bible birds are used to teach spiritual lessons. When cares beset us, we should “fly as a bird to your mountain” (Ps 11:1). When we defeat Satan, “we are rescued like a bird from the fowler’s snare” (Ps 124:7). The falsely accused are “like the sparrow in its flitting, like the swallow in its flight, a curse uncalled-for arrives nowhere” (Prov 26:2). When we feel sorry for ourselves, Jesus says “the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head” (Mt 8:20). And best of all, God’s tender mercy for us: “You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself” (Ex 19:4).

I think many of you know my love of birds, though I must admit I really don’t know much about them. But I do know the birds that come to my feeder and play in our courtyard. Just a few weeks ago, two pigeons alighted in our courtyard and have hung around ever since. I learned that pigeons mate for life, so I’m assuming this pair is a couple—whether newlyweds or “empty nesters,” I don’t know. But they like to land on my second-floor windowsill and watch me at my desk. The birds at my feeder often drop a few seeds, and the pigeons (never a very fancy bird) are happy to eat the scraps that fall from their more colorful and beloved avian cousins.

The birds at my feeder are mostly finches, and I love to watch them. My favorite bird is the American Goldfinch. You can’t miss an American Goldfinch, whether the brightly yellow-colored male goldfinch, or the lesser-hued “lesser goldfinch.” The finches—whether the goldfinch, house finch, or purple finch—are here most of the year, though numbers vary according to their migratory practices. This year, a few finches wintered here in Oregon (I always serve farm-to-feeder delicacies, worth the cold weather). I was happy to host my fine-feathered friends!

All of this is a long introduction to Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit descended “in the form of a dove” upon Mary and the disciples. The picture on the front of the Bulletin today is the Holy Spirit in the form of a peacock, a picture I took at Maryhill Museum in the Columbia Gorge. The bird is a rare white peacock that allowed me to get within five feet of its plumage. Some of you may have seen the complete picture in my office. It inspires me, with its eyes full of wisdom and grace. Birds . . . a true gift of God.

Msrgr. Patrick S. Brennan

WORSHIP ✦ PRAYER ✦ FAITH FORMATION

Memorial Day Masses: Masses honoring those who have died and the families that have been served will be held at the two Archdiocesan Catholic Cemeteries on Memorial Day, Monday, May 28. Archbishop Alexander Sample will preside at Mount Calvary Cemetery at 10am in the Cemetery's Altar Garden. Bishop Peter Smith will celebrate Mass at Gethsemani at 10am. All are invited.

Baptismal Preparation for Parents of Infants: The next session will be on Thursday, June 21 at 7pm in St. Joseph Hall at the Cathedral Center. Enter from 17th Street.

Quo Vadis Days– June 18-21: “Quo Vadis” is the Latin phrase for “Where are you going?” Legend tells us that Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father’s will. Quo Vadis Days is a 4-day camp for young Catholic men to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God’s call in their lives. Contact the Office of Vocations for more information at 503.233.8368 or vocations@archdpx.org.

A Special Thanks to the First, Second and Third Grade students of Cathedral School. Once a week the students clean, straighten and restock our pews at St. Mary’s Cathedral. We will surely miss them over the summer and will welcome them back at the start of the new school year in September!

Have you signed up for Electronic Giving (E-Giving)? Please contact the parish office if you are still receiving Sunday offertory Envelopes.
