A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

On this Memorial Day weekend, I remember my late father who was a veteran of World War II. Born in 1919 in County Mayo, Ireland, one of 12 children, my father traveled to England at the age of 18 to seek his fortune and to support his mother back home in Claremorris. While in England, World War II broke out, and my father joined the British Army. It might seem a little unusual for an Irishman to join the British Army; but if you knew my father, it would make perfect sense. He bore no grudge against the British—my father could get along with anyone. England offered my father, and some of his siblings, a good life, and he repaid the generosity by supporting the crown.

As a member of the Royal Engineers, my father saw a great deal of action, in North Africa, Italy, and Austria. It was in Austria that he met my mother, a Viennese city girl, and they married in Klagenfurt, Austria, in 1947. In 1948, they were on their way to America, once again to seek their fortune in the “land of the free, and the home of the brave.”

My late parents come to mind this Memorial Day weekend. Perhaps a little background on Memorial Day would be helpful. It is a federal holiday observed annually on the last Monday of May. In earlier years it was called “Decoration Day,” becoming Memorial Day after World War II. The American holiday originally commemorated the fallen Union soldiers of the Civil War (the southern states had their own memorial celebrations). At the beginning of the 20th century, the holiday was extended to honor all Americans who died in all wars. In the popular mind, Memorial Day is also the unofficial start of summer, even as Labor Day marks its end.

Through the decades of the 20th century, Memorial Day also became an occasion to visit the graves of the deceased, especially family members, whether they served in the military or not. Thus, the custom developed in the Catholic Church to celebrate Mass in cemeteries or in parish churches on Memorial Day, honoring those who have gone before us, but especially those who died in service to their country. I certainly intend to visit my parents’ grave at Mount Calvary on Monday. Here at Cathedral we will celebrate Mass at 9:00 a.m., to pray for the dead and to offer support to their families.

Visiting the dead in cemeteries, and perhaps sharing a picnic meal at the grave, is a custom that goes back to the early Church. The first Christians would gather at the graves of the apostles to celebrate the Eucharist, leading to a custom of placing a relic of a saint in our altars. In the Communion of Saints, we believe that our beloved dead are still with us. We love them, and they love us.

I will pray for all veterans on this Memorial Day. And for those who have gone before us, may they rest in peace.

Msgr. Patrick S. Brennan
