A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

I am on pilgrimage to Ireland and Scotland with a group sponsored by Oregon Catholic Press, and I return to the parish on Thursday, October 4th. My column this week will be a reflection on the Sunday readings. I'm praying for the parish at the holy sites!

Our readings today speak to us of our destiny—where we will spend eternity: whether we will live with God, or whether we will not. Let's take a deeper look.

A report is given to Jesus by the apostle John. John is annoyed that someone who is not a follower of Jesus has used "the name of Jesus" to drive out a demon. John wants this to stop. But Jesus says to John, "Leave him alone." If he is doing good, as we are, then let him continue. "For whoever is not against us is for us." The attitude of Jesus is expansive, not restrictive. All good deeds will be blessed—no matter who performs them. Jesus then goes on to say that "anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink"—anyone who does any act of kindness toward you—"will surely not lose his reward." No good deed will be overlooked, whether by a Christian or a non-Christian. Each shall receive his or her reward. Expansive, not restrictive.

On the flip side of the coin are the evil deeds that we do. Particularly egregious is to lead someone else into sin, especially a "little one." A little one can be a child, but it can also be anyone who is vulnerable: an elderly person, a person with some disability, a person who is easily influenced. The punishment for such a sin is horrible: a mill stone around the neck, thrown into the sea.

Jesus emphasizes the seriousness of sin with some very graphic language. If any of your body parts cause you to sin, then cut them off! Better to enter the Kingdom maimed than to be cast into Gehenna intact.

Heaven and Hell? Reward and punishment? Let's be clear about this: heaven is not a reward, nor is hell a punishment. Both heaven and hell are choices, a choice that we make now, in the way we live. God respects our choices, since we have free will. We can choose to be with God, or we can choose to be separated from God. Still, is it always so black and white? Most of us are a mix of good and bad. God knows this. That is why we have Purgatory (yes, Purgatory is still a Church teaching). Purgatory is hope for sinners. Purgatory is God's way of saving those who make bad choices in life. Purgatory allows us to let go of sin and to live with God forever.

When we were baptized, a small cross was placed on our foreheads, and we were claimed for Christ. As children of God, heaven is our destiny. May God bless all of us—and lead us to life.

Msgr. Patrick S. Brennan

Children's Liturgy of the Word: We are looking for volunteers to help teach Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 9 am Mass. Leaders are given materials and a teaching guide that makes educating our 4 year olds to fourth graders a rewarding and easy experience! Please contact Rhiana Kehrli rkehrli@comcast.net or Kate Gobel kpgobel@gmail.com for more information.

The Parish Program of Religious Education for children Grades 1st and 2nd (not attending Catholic School) classes have begun in Preparation for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Eucharist on Sunday September 23rd. Classes begins at 10:05am immediately following the 9:00am Mass, and are over at 10:55am. This is a two year program of study.

You will find registration forms on the table in the vestibule, as you leave the church. For more information, please leave a clearly spoken name and phone number for Stephanie Fisher-Hunt at 503.292.5679 so that your call may be returned. Or, send a telephone text to 503.890.2413. We are looking forward to serving your family.

We are always looking for more teachers (catechists) to partner with us in teams of two, so that no class needs to be canceled due to the sudden absence of a teacher. There are 25 or 26 classes per the school year, ending with the beautiful celebration of First Communion in May.
