MISSION APPEAL TODAY - AUG 11 & 12: We welcome Mark Curnutte of Hands Together, a Catholic mission group, which has operated in Port-au-Prince and Gonaives, Haiti, for three decades. A four-star rated charity, Hands Together invests a third of its resources in Catholic education and adult literacy. Haiti has a threadbare public education system that is reserved primarily for the children of the country's ruling elite. We serve the poorest of the poor and provide meals to several thousand students and elderly people each day. We have also operated two well-digging rigs on flatbed trucks for many years, digging hundreds of clean-water wells that are used for drinking, cooking, cleaning, and irrigation. Haiti, the most impoverished country in the Western Hemisphere, has widespread deforestation. We are currently teaching ecology in our schools involving our students in a massive tree-planting project. We operate four medical clinics and employ 42 Haitian medical personnel, including three doctors. We try to meet as many needs as possible: providing money for funerals, medicine, housing. For more info, visit www.handstogether.org. Thank you!!

CONGRATULATIONS TO CAROLINE DINEEN, granddaughter of (the late and former Knight) Bill, and Marlene Dineen, and daughter of James and Joann. Caroline is the college winner of this year's "Knights of Columbus" essay scholarship award. She will be attending Kent State University this fall. God's speed!

Question of the Week

Reading: John 6:41-51

Adults: Jesus continues His discourse and states that whoever eats this bread will live forever. How does the Eucharist renew you and give you a new sense of strength for your life's journey?

Children: The people listening to Jesus did not want to believe that Jesus was the "Bread of Life". Do I want to believe Jesus?
