We extend a heart-felt prayer for all our youth as they travel back to school for an exciting new year of learning and fun! Blessings to each of you - we're proud of you! You can do this!!

"THE STAFF, PARENTS, AND STUDENTS of St Anthony of Padua School want to thank the wonderful people of Our Lady of Victory Parish for the generous donations of school supplies and paper products. We have many low-income families in our school and purchasing school supplies causes a hardship for many of them. Through the generosity of your parishioners, we were able to help ease that burden for many of our families. We are truly overwhelmed by the generosity and thoughtfulness of Our Lady of Victory Parish. Thank you again."

Sincerely, Sr Elizabeth Szilvasi, Principal

Question of the Week
Reading: John 6:51-58
Adults: As Jesus is the “living water” in Baptism, He is also “living bread” in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Taking part in the Eucharist weekly, or daily, brings us to closer unity with Jesus. What is your focus as you approach the Eucharist? How will you live your life this week because of Who you received?
Children: The reality of Jesus’ Real Presence in the simple gifts of bread and wine that we offer during Mass is the heart of today’s Gospel. How am I to accept this gift?
