OUR LADY OF FATIMA 100TH ANNIVERSARY PLENARY INDULGENCE – Just a reminder there are a number of celebrations scheduled this year to mark the 100th anniversary of the apparitions at Fatima. Our diocesan celebration will be Saturday, Oct 7, at 10:00 am. There are 3 ways of obtaining a plenary indulgence, including the ordinary conditions of going to Confession and Communion, being interiorly detached from sin, and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father: 1) Make a pilgrimage to the shrine in Portugal; or 2) to a local statue of Our Lady of Fatima; or 3) for the elderly and infirm, they may pray in front of an image of Our Lady of Fatima, spiritually uniting themselves on the 13th of each month, between May and Oct, to the jubilee celebration, "offering to the merciful God with confidence, through Mary, their prayers and sufferings or the sacrifices they make in their own lives". Please refer to the earlier insert for more details, copies of which may be found in the plastic holders at the entrances of the church.

Question of the Week

Reading: Matthew 18:21-35

Adults: Today Jesus calls all His disciples, including us, to a very high standard of mercy. True forgiveness comes from the depths of the heart; we are not to be like the unforgiving servant of today's Gospel. Search your heart; with whom do you need to overcome injury and turn it into compassion and mercy? Pray for that.

Children: Forgiveness is HARD. That's why Jesus needs us to practice it so often. Is there anyone in your life that you haven't forgiven? What's holding you back?

ST V-ST M HIGH SCHOOL – Open House, Sunday, Sept 24 from 11:00 am-1:00 pm. STVM students will provide guided tours; Faculty and Coaches will be available to answer questions. Register at www.stvm.com. Check the website for Scholarship/Placement Test dates.
