Jubilee Year of Mercy

April 3, 2016

Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy

Last year on this Sunday, Pope Francis declared this year a Jubilee Year of Mercy. Saint John Paul II named the Second Sunday of Easter "Sunday of Divine Mercy" in response to Saint Faustina Kowalska's Divine Mercy devotion, which offered spiritual comfort to hearts worldwide. But Francis challenges us to make that comfort we receive a gift we gladly share: "We are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us." The clearest expression of merciful love, says Francis, is pardoning others. "At times how hard it seems to forgive!" he acknowledges. "And yet pardon is the instrument placed into our fragile hands to attain serenity of heart" (Misericordiae Vultus, 9). The necessary condition for living joyfully? "To let go of anger, wrath, violence, and revenge." May Divine Mercy Sunday in this Jubilee Year of Mercy remind us that Jesus made mercy our life's ideal and a criterion for our faith's credibility: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy" (Matthew 5:7).

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Victory. Catholic faithful from around the Victoria deanery will gather to commemorate the divine mercy of our Lord with Eucharistic Adoration. It will include prayer, silent reflection, music, litanies, the singing of the Divine Mercy Chaplet and an opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Let us join together with Bishop Cahill in adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament, as we ask the Lord for an outpouring of His Divine Mercy.

An Expression of 'Thanks'

Thank you for your generous support of the various Lenten Special Collections including the Catholic Relief Services Collection (Operation Rice Bowl), The Holy Land Collection, and your donations to the Education and Formation fund for our Diocesan Seminarians. Through your generosity, families will have vital humanitarian needs met, the friars of St Francis will continue their mission of maintaining and preserving the Holy Land, and the education fund of our future priests will be augmented. Your support is greatly appreciated.
