Jubilee Year of Mercy

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 26, 2016
Yet again in Ordinary Time, Jesus seems to demand extraordinary commitment. A would-be disciple enthusiastically volunteers to follow Jesus “wherever” (Luke 9:57). Jesus replies that “wherever” means “nowhere to rest his head” (9:58). To other candidates, Jesus brusquely denies reasonable requests to fulfill family obligations (9:59, 61), declaring that discipleship demands total commitment—now! But Jesus also demands that we not judge how others respond. When James and John volunteered to “call down fire from heaven” (9:54) to destroy an unwelcoming town, Jesus “turned and rebuked them” (9:55). All violence of any kind is completely unacceptable among Jesus’ disciples, a lesson this Jubilee Year of Mercy is teaching the Christian community once again. Paul’s challenge to the Galatians and us reinforces Jesus’ decisive command to James and John that they express their commitment to him through compassion for others. We must abandon the violence of “biting and devouring one another” (Galatians 5:15), choosing instead to “serve one another through love”(5:13).

MEN'S SUPPORT GROUP FOR SEXUAL ADDICTIONS: THERE IS HOPE

The incidence of sexual addiction is increasing at an alarming rate across the nation. Men are disconnecting from reality to pursue the illusion of love, acceptance and affirmation they find through pornography, fantasy, anonymous encounters, and affairs. To help men overcome this addiction, The Emmaus Center is offering a structured group experience called WALKING FREE. The group meets once a week and utilizes both large and small group settings for ministry. Meetings are confidential; times and locations are not publicized. Meetings will begin in July, so call soon for more info. Contact Lee at 361-746-8383
