PASTOR'S COMMENT: "Today we pray the words of Psalm 130 - 'I trust in the Lord; my soul trusts in God's word.' If this is the truth that we hold in our hearts and more than speak upon our lips, then we are ready to take a chance on God's love and support. The generosity and mercy that God shows is the same that we are able to share with one another. Each day becomes an opportunity to put our faith into action and allow God to use us in ways that fill us and send us out to be the hands and heart of Jesus." — Fr. John

SCRIPTURE: "Jacob then made this vow: 'Of everything you give me, I will return a tenth part to you without fail.'" — Genesis 28:20-22

CHRISTIAN COMMENT: "I was once young and now I am old, but not once have I been witness to God's failure to supply my need when first I had given for the furtherance of His work. He has never failed in His promise, so I cannot fail in my services to Him." — William Carey (1781-1834) Baptist Missionary to India

CHRISM MASS

MONDAY, APRIL 10 - 7:30 PM

On Monday, April 10, 2017 Bishop James F. Checchio will celebrate the Chrism Mass with the priests of the Diocese. At this Mass, the Bishop will bless the Holy Oils which each parish receives for the rites of anointing. Saint Ambrose [340-397] began this custom— which we now call the Chrism Mass – in his Cathedral in Milan. These Holy Oils, which are used to sanctify the Faithful, have been channels of holiness for centuries! The OIL OF CATECHUMENS is used to anoint infants and adults before their Baptism; the OIL OF THE SICK is used on the forehead and hands of the infirm in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick; and SACRED CHRISM is used to anoint the head of the newly baptized, the foreheads of confirmandi, the hands of a priest at his ordination, the head of a bishop at his ordination, and the altar and walls of new churches.

At the Mass, all priests make a Renewal of Commitment to Priestly Service, recommitting themselves to their Bishop and to their ministry to God and His People; the Bishop and all Priests then ask the people for a pledge of their prayerful support.

All are strongly encouraged to join in the ancient, grace-filled Chrism Mass at the Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi in Metuchen at 7:30 PM. The Diocese of Metuchen will provide a live broadcast of the Chrism Mass Monday, April 10. On that day, you may access the live stream of the Mass via the Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi website, <http://www.stfranciscathedral.org/>. Click on "Watch us Live! Online streaming."

► Please note that our parish daily Mass on April 10, will be celebrated at 9:00AM. There will be no evening Mass.

The Sacred Heart Rosary Altar Society invites you to pray the Rosary with them on the first Sunday of each month one half hour before all Masses.

THIS IS OUR FAITH

LENTEN BOOK

"Resisting Happiness"

PART 5

Chapter 28: The Light is on: That is the Confessional Light! Kelly says "that for the last 50 years Catholics just stopped going to confession." But he maintains that, "We all have a great need for healing. We all need to be liberated from our self-centeredness"

Kelly continues "Haven't you ever noticed the way people living good lives have a glow about them? They don't seem to be carrying the weight of the world on their shoulders. When you go to confession your soul is cleansed and an inner beauty shines from within you. But after a few weeks the little sins begin to pile up, and before you know it, a big sin doesn't look so bad on top of a pile of small sins. And once you add the big one to the pile, you figure you've made a mess already so you might as well really make a mess. Little by little, you begin to lose your sense of sin. Before you know it, you are very unhappy and you don't really know why." If you think you have not sinned, then maybe better questions to ask yourself are: have I been the best- version-of-myself; where I haven't I been the best- version-of-myself? "Action Step: No matter how long it has been, go to reconciliation this week!"

Chapter 27: The Secret to Excellence: Matthew Kelly's dad's mantra was "listen to your coach", because nobody achieves excellence without coaching. Matthew reminds us that God wants you to have an excellent life; God wants you to become the best-version-of-yourself, and God want you to be holy. "Action Step: Seek out a spiritual coach."

Chapter 30 and 31: The First and Second Intervention. God sends people into our lives. For Matthew Kelly, John was the first person to lead Matthew on his spiritual journey. This intervention started when Matthew was only 15 to 17 years old. John helped Matthew develop a set of spiritual activities and a plan for enhancing his relationship with God. "Key Point: What's your plan? Have you ever really had a plan for spiritual health and growth? Action Step: How are you going to grow spiritually over the next 12 months, write down a plan!"

Second Intervention: Matthew's friends invite him to go away on a golf trip. Actually, the trip was a subterfuge to talk to Matthew. One of his friends said to him in front of everybody else "we think you are wasting your life, and you need to make some changes", Matthew says "Dynamic Catholic exists because of that intervention... Key Point: Our best friends encourage and challenge us to become the best versions of ourselves. Action Step: Who in your circle is God calling you to encourage or challenge to become the best-version-of-themselves?"

Chapter 32. Let your light shine: God has a unique mission for you. "Key Point: You have the perfect personality and talents to fulfill the mission God is entrusting to you. Action Step: Which of these traits most prevent you from letting your light shine? Fear, laziness, procrastination, selfishness, addiction, obsession, Comparing yourself to others, allowing your critics to drain your energy and direct your life, and unwillingness to move beyond your comfort zone, self-doubt, gossip, negative relationships, worry, excuses."

PAPAL QUOTE AND CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

THEME 6: Care for God's Creation: We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

"Climate change is a global problem with grave implications: environmental, social, economic, political and for the distribution of goods. It represents one of the principal challenges facing humanity in our day. Its worst impact will probably be felt by developing countries in coming decades. Many of the poor live in areas particularly affected by phenomena related to warming, and their means of subsistence are largely dependent on natural reserves and ecosystemic services such as agriculture, fishing and forestry. They have no other financial activities or resources which can enable them to adapt to climate change or to face natural disasters, and their access to social services and protection is very limited. For example, changes in climate, to which animals and plants cannot adapt, lead them to migrate; this in turn affects the livelihood of the poor, who are then forced to leave their homes, with great uncertainty for their future and that of their children. There has been a tragic rise in the number of migrants seeking to flee from the growing poverty caused by environmental degradation. They are not recognized by international conventions as refugees; they bear the loss of the lives they have left behind, without enjoying any legal protection whatsoever. Sadly, there is widespread indifference to such suffering, which is even now taking place throughout our world. Our lack of response to these tragedies involving our brothers and sisters points to the loss of that sense of responsibility for our fellow men and women upon which all civil society is founded.." #25, ENCYCLICAL LETTER, Laudato Si, On Care For Our Common Home, Pope Francis I, May 24, 2015.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
