Prayer to the Divine Mercy

(From Catholic Online)

O Lord, behold here before You a soul who exists in this world in order to allow You to exercise Your admirable mercy and manifest it before heaven and earth. Others may glorify You through their faithfulness and perseverance, thus making evident the power of Your grace. How sweet and generous You are to those who are faithful to You!

Nevertheless, I will glorify You by acquainting others of Your goodness to sinners and by reminding them that Your mercy is above all malice, that nothing can exhaust it, and that no relapse, no matter how shameful or criminal, should allow the sinner to despair of forgiveness.

I have offended You grievously, O Beloved Redeemer, but it would be still worse if I were to offend You by thinking that You were lacking in goodness to forgive me. I would rather He deprive me of everything else than the trust I have in Your Mercy.

Should I fall a hundred times or should my crimes be a hundred times worse than they actually are, I would continue to trust in Your mercy. Amen.

THIS IS OUR FAITH

The Feast of Divine Mercy

Today we celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy. This feast was instituted for the entire church on April 30, 2000 by Pope John Paul II, coincidental with his canonization of Sister Faustina Kowalska.

Divine Mercy is originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Sister (now Saint) Faustina reported as part of her encounters with Jesus between 1931 and 1938 in Poland, and is associated with special promises from Jesus. “I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow.”

In these revelations to St. Faustina, Jesus commanded that an image be painted (seen on the left) according to the pattern that St. Faustina had seen and then venerated, first in the Sisters' chapel, and then which spread throughout the world. These revelations included the Chaplet of Divine Mercy (a chaplet is a string of 55 beads (one third of the rosary number) for counting prayers). The Lord asked Sr. Faustina to say the Chaplet and to “Encourage souls to say the Chaplet that I have given you.”

Jesus also specifically requested the establishment of the Feast of Divine Mercy: "The Feast of Mercy emerged from my very depths of tenderness. It is my desire that it solemnly be celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the fount of My Mercy."

"However, it is important to remember that this message of The Divine Mercy, revealed to St. Faustina and to our present generation is not new. It is a powerful reminder of who God is and has been from the very beginning. This truth, that God is in His very nature Love and Mercy Itself, is given to us by our Judeo-Christian faith and God's self-revelation."

"The Old Testament speaks frequently and with great tenderness about God's mercy. Yet, it was Jesus, who through His words and actions, revealed to us in an extraordinary way, God as a loving Father, rich in mercy and abounding in great kindness and love. In Jesus' merciful love and care for the poor, the oppressed, the sick and the sinful, and especially in His freely choosing to take upon Himself the punishment for our sins, a truly horrible suffering and death on the Cross, so that all may be freed from destructive consequences and death, that He manifested in a superabundant and radical way the greatness of God's love and mercy for humanity. In His person as God-Man, one in being with the Father, Jesus both reveals and is God's Love and Mercy Itself."

For more on Divine Mercy- including the specific requirements for the indulgences and the source of the above information, please see: <http://www.thedivinemercy.org>

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
