STEWARDSHIP OF TIME AND TALENT: "If someone who has worldly means sees a brother in need and refuses him compassion, how can the love of God remain in him?" — 1 John 3:17

CHRISTIAN COMMENT: "Stewardship is not just a question of checkbooks, but rather a question of your attitude towards your money. It has to do with how a person lives day by day. We are all stewards of God's bounty, including love and consideration, courtesy, helpfulness and generosity. Stewardship embraces an attitude which acknowledges God as the source of all our blessings. It is a characteristic of Christians, one which requires awareness of where our blessings came from and then the practice of sharing them with those less fortunate." — From bulletin of Cathedral of St Francis Assisi, Metuchen NJ

Respect for Life

Many people are unaware of the fact that tax dollars are given to an organization that kills unborn babies. The Planned Parenthood Federation of America is the largest abortion provider in the country and roughly 40% of its budget comes from federal, state and local health service grants and reimbursements. - NRL News

THIS IS OUR FAITH

Pentecost and the Power of Prayer!

Today we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost! The first Pentecost is sometimes referred to as the birthday of the Church because it was on this day that the Apostles, inspired by the Holy Spirit, first publicly preached the good news to others. The word Pentecost comes from the ancient Greek and means the 50th day. (It is 50 days after Easter, the Resurrection of the Lord.) Pentecost was also a Jewish feast and commemorated the giving of the law to Moses on Mount Sinai. The Catholic Catechism for Adults recounts "that the Holy Spirit filled the church with power and wisdom at Pentecost. The church empowered by the Holy Spirit then brought the message of Christ's salvation to the world." — CCA 112-115.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says "the Spirit helps us in our weakness." (Q741) And the Spirit did help the Apostles in their weakness on that first Pentecost. In St. John's Gospel, we read that on Easter Sunday evening "the Apostles were gathered together and the doors were locked for fear of the Jews." — John 20:19. The Apostles were afraid and were not out proclaiming Christ to the world.

When the Apostles returned to the city after the Ascension of Jesus (now 40 days after Easter), it is recorded in the Acts of the Apostles that they "went to the upper room where they were staying, they devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women and Mary the mother of Jesus and His brothers. Still they were not proclaiming Jesus to the world. Then the Holy Spirit appeared to them as tongues of fire "which parted and came to rest on each one of them and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and begin to speak in different tongues, as the spirit enabled them to proclaim." — Acts 2:3-4.

We look for the power of God in our lives and in our world today. Like the Apostles and Mary we must devote ourselves to prayer, trusting in God's providence that we can expect the strength and gifts that we need to fulfill the role, the mission that He has assigned to each of us based on our responsibilities in life.

"Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love." In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen!

and God's many blessings to our clergy who serve in our parish.*

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.

The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
