PASTOR'S COMMENT: "The passage from St. Luke's Gospel for this weekend presents us with quite a challenge. Two people go to the temple. One is so full of himself and proud that he was so good, so kind, so generous, so unlike the rest of society. He really had no need of God. The other person simply asked for God's mercy. If we are not open to receiving, and grateful for what we have been given, we have no need to give thanks or anything else to anyone, even God." — Fr. John

SCRIPTURE: "All tithes of the land, whether in grain from the fields or in fruit from the trees, belong to the LORD; they are sacred to the LORD." — Leviticus 27:30

CHRISTIAN COMMENT: "If you hoard material possessions, they will rob you of your soul."
— Pope Francis 8/5/14 Tweet

This year's theme, inspired by the Jubilee Year of Mercy, is "Witnesses of God's Mercy." Pope Francis invites the whole world to support developing Mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, formerly Communist countries of Europe and remote regions of Latin America where priests, Religious and lay ministers are called to share our faith and serve the poorest, those with the least possibility of finding assistance from other sources. Please keep Missionaries in your prayers and be as generous in your support as possible. Envelopes are available at the entrances of the church. Please mark them WMS.

ALTAR OF REMEMBRANCE — During the month of November, our parish will prepare an Altar of Remembrance in the church to commemorate the souls of our family and friends who have gone to eternal life. The altar will be in set from Thursday, October 27 through Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 24.

In many cultures, it is the custom during the month of November to remember and honor our Holy Dead in a special way. An altar reminds us of the encounters we have with God, especially through other people, and helps us to give thanks to God for His many blessings.

Please bring a small photo of your deceased family member(s) to the Parish Center by Monday, October 24 for the altar. Frames must be no larger than 5x7 and have your name and phone number on the back so we can return the items after Friday, November 25. Any other object for the altar must be labeled with name and phone number as well.

THE BOOK OF LIFE will be open in church throughout the month of November that you may write the names of your loved ones who have died, especially this past year. We will pray for them with all the faithful departed. The book will be placed near the piano at the front of the church.

Respect for Life

As political candidates contest for our support, It is vital to remember that "no amount of good social policy, such as programs that feed the hungry and shelter the homeless - as vitally important as they are - can make up for bad policies concerning the protection of life itself. Without the fundamental right to live, the right not to be killed, no other rights are meaningful. In fact, without life no other rights can exist. (Respect Life pamphlet).

SACRED HEART SOCIAL CONCERNS

Yes, it's that time again. We are reaching out to you early to keep us in mind for THANKSGIVING turkeys and fixings. Also, in November, the local Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Girl Scouts will be having their food drives in town. Please remember to support their efforts — a large portion of the food comes to Sacred Heart Food Pantry.

Please Note: Our pantry shelves continue to be in desperate need of all non-perishable food items and toiletry products (toilet tissue, toothpaste, shampoo, bar soap, etc.) We appreciate any and all help.

If you know of families in need, please have them call 908-756-0633, x112, Monday, Wednesday, Friday between 9:00AM & 11:00AM. The primary source of our ministry's funding is from the Poor Boxes located at all the doors of the Church. Also, at all doors, bins are provided for your donations of non-perishable food items.

THIS IS OUR FAITH

Catholic Social Teaching PART 2

The Church's social teaching is a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amidst the challenges of a modern society. Modern Catholic social teaching has been articulated through a tradition of over 25 papal and conciliar (Church Councils) documents and 40 episcopal documents from the U.S. Catholic Bishops. The bishops have identified 7 Major Themes of Catholic Social Teaching:

As can be seen in the summary that follows, 7 Major Themes of Catholic social doctrine build on each other and complement each other. All of the Church's social teaching is rooted in the fundamental principle of the sacredness of human life and the fundamental dignity of every single individual.

1. Life and Dignity of the Human Person: The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. Our belief in the sanctity of human life and the inherent dignity of the human person is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion, assisted suicide, increased use of the death penalty. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

2. Call to Family, Community, and Participation: The person is not only sacred, but also social. How we organize our society - in economics and politics, in law and policy - directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. The family is the central social institution that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

3. Rights and Responsibilities: The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

4. Option for the Poor and Vulnerable: A basic moral test is how our most vulnerable members are faring. In a society marred by deepening divisions between rich and poor, our tradition recalls the story of the Last Judgment (Mt 25:31-46) and instructs us to put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first.

5. The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers: The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work respected—the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to organize and join unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

6. Solidarity: We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers, wherever they live. We are one human family, whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. Learning to practice the virtue of solidarity means learning that "loving our neighbor" has global dimensions in an interdependent world.

7. Care for the Environment: We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet. This environmental challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

In this memoir, set as deeply in his mind as in the Southeast Asian jungle, a young American soldier embarks on a journey to a war that, for him, will never be over.
Fighting Shadows in Vietnam
The world was a playground for Mickey, a naive Irish American kid bored with his life. His father served in World War II, his brother was a Marine in Vietnam; now it was his turn. His 365 days in Vietnam builds in torment until an attack on a bunker complex in Cambodia. Wounded, his friend captured, he becomes a tormented survivor knowing he is always just a heartbeat from death.
