A MESSAGE FROM FR. JERRY

Mass Time Changes: After prayer and consultation, I have decided that there needs to be a change in the Mass schedule to better serve our three parishes. When I conducted the survey last year about this time, it was a close call between two of the options. After having the current Mass times for the better part of a year, there have been many calls for a Sunday option at St. John's in Rosholt. There have also been requests for the Saturday night option in Sisseton. Obviously, it is impossible to please everyone; I am only one priest, and the Bishop has strongly urged us to limit ourselves to three Masses per Sunday schedule (including the Saturday vigil Mass). What I do not want is confusion in our schedule. Rather than do a one-a-month type schedule change, I have decided that the quarterly rotation provides a schedule with less confusion. This new schedule (below) will take effect the weekend following the Rosholt Threshing Bee, that is August 22/23. We will give this schedule a try this year and see what results:

January through March:	St. Peter, 9:00 AM Sunday St. John, 5:30 PM Saturday
April through June:	St. Peter, 5:30 PM Saturday St. John, 9:00 AM Sunday
July through September:	St. Peter, 9:00 AM Sunday St. John, 5:30 PM Saturday
October through December:	St. Peter, 5:30 PM Saturday St. John, 9:00 AM Sunday
St. Kateri Tekakwitha,	11:00 AM Sunday (year-round)
