A MESSAGE FROM FR. JERRY

The Peter's Pence collection today is taken up to give the Holy Father, Pope Francis, the resources to address humanitarian crises and other needs throughout the world.

Ordination to the priesthood was celebrated Friday morning in Sioux Falls. Deacons Grant Lacey and Darin Schmidt were ordained to the priesthood. There are at this time a total of 23 men in the seminary studying for the Diocese of Sioux Falls. Next year, Deacon Barry Reuwsaat will complete his preparations for the priesthood; and in two years, there are six men whom, God willing, will persevere through to ordination. Some of this is the work of Fr. Shaun Haggerty, from Sisseton, who as vocations director is working full time to recruit men for the priesthood. One of the upcoming efforts will be to revive the Vocations Camp that was once held at Blue Cloud Abbey (now Abbey of the Hills). Our CFSA contributions go to help support this effort.

Stretched as I am, I have decided that I can no longer do two Masses in Veblen each month. Mass in Veblen will be celebrated only the Third Sunday of the month, at 7 PM. Next Veblen Mass will be on July 19th, at which time we will decide whether a different time would work better.

STEUBENVILLE OF THE ROCKIES— This past weekend I had the pleasure to attend Steubenville of the Rockies Youth Conference with 16 students from Sisseton, 9 students from Rosholt and 4 other chaperones. This was my first year and it was a great blessing to see our youth grow in their faith with the other 2500 participants. They went from a quiet love of God, to shouting out their love for Him! It was great to see these two towns come together and see the kids become friends. Thank you for all of your support. We will be doing a presentation in Rosholt and at St. Peter's soon. Watch the bulletin for announcements. Also check out our Facebook page Catholic Community Center to see the pictures and videos from this weekend. Michelle Skarnagel

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Mark Your Calendars for the July 14th 5 PM celebration of St. Kateri Tekakwitha! Bishop Paul Swain will join the parishioners of St. Catherine's for a special Mass as he proclaims the renaming of the parish after St. Kateri (St. Catherine of Siena was the patron saint of Kateri, whose name is an Indian form of "Catherine"). In addition to the Mass, there will be an unveiling of a new sign, the blessing of a new statue, as well as door prizes and a dinner put on by the parish.

ROSARY LEADERS NEEDED

Edgewood Vista in Sisseton is looking for a couple volunteers to lead the Rosary a few times a month. For more information or to volunteer, contact Rita Kurkowski at 698-3500 Mondays-Fridays from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
