Anointing or last rites? Anointing of the sick is distinct from 'last rites,' which are to be administered near the time of death

Question: I am confused about the difference between the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and "last rites." When I was growing up, they were the same. My husband has terminal cancer. When he comes toward the end, what rites should I ask our pastor for – and when? C.G., San Bernardino, Calif.

Answer: Before the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, anointing of the sick and the "last rites" were often done together. There was a tendency to wait as long as possible, and to have these rites celebrated in close proximity to death. The reforms after Vatican II went to great lengths to separate the rites associated with sickness and death and to distinguish the anointing of the sick from the rites to be used at the time of death.

The introduction to the rite of anointing of the sick states: "The Sacrament of Anointing is the proper sacrament for those Christians whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age" (No. 97). It goes on to say: "The priest should ensure that the abuse of delaying the reception of the sacrament does not occur, and that the celebration takes place while the sick person is capable of active participation" and "that those needing the sacrament should seek it at the beginning of a serious illness" (No. 99).

Since your husband is suffering from terminal cancer, it is appropriate that you approach your pastor and set a time when he can come to your home for the anointing – or that your husband (and yourself and family members, if possible) go to the church and have the pastor celebrate the anointing there.

This sacrament is no longer seen as the primary rite associated with dying, but a dying person should be anointed if he or she has not been anointed earlier.

The rites properly described as "last rites" today are the celebration of viaticum, the Commendation of the Dying and the Prayers for the Dead. When someone is close to death (and has been anointed already), they should receive holy Communion for the last time (though this may be repeated if the person lingers in illness).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "The Eucharist should always be the last sacrament of the earthly journey, the 'viaticum' for 'passing over' to eternal life" (No. 1517). It also says: "Communion in the body and blood of Christ, received at this moment of 'passing over' to the Father, has a particular significance and importance. It is the seed of eternal life and the power of resurrection, according to the words of the Lord: 'He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day' [Jn 6:54]. The sacrament of Christ once dead and now risen, the Eucharist is here the sacrament of passing over from death to life, from this world to the Father" (No. 1524).

Viaticum is complemented by the Commendation of the Dying – some of the most beautiful and powerful prayers in the Church's repertoire. These should be said at the time of death or when death is clearly imminent. Then there are the Prayers for the Dead, which are intended for use after the person has died. These are meant to send the dead person on his or her way and to comfort those who are present.

It is ideal if a priest or deacon is present at the time of death, but this is not always feasible. In the absence of a priest or deacon, the Commendation of the Dying and the Prayers for the Dead may be said by one of those present.

Have you ever wondered how the less fortunate within our Parish boundaries manage to find hope in their journeys? Wonder no longer! The Society of St Vincent de Paul is an international lay organization active in the US since 1845 which has been active here in your Parish since the 1980's.

Assistance is available regardless of race, creed or color. We do not advertise our existence because that could take the focus away from our primary mission, to aid and comfort the poor and needy. As Pope Francis has requested we "meet with the poor in their own homes, at their kitchen table or in their living rooms". We go forth just as Christ sent the apostles, two by two. Please ask any Vincentian for more information about joining the Society.

We could not do any of this without the generous support of all of you. Whether that support is food or financial or prayers for our mission, all of it originates from within the hearts of you, our generous parishioners. Thank you so much from the poor and needy in our area.

We had a little confusion with our collection this month because our usual third Saturday and Sunday was not really the third weekend. Please forgive the confusion. We will be in our usual places after the 8 and 930am Mass this Sunday. For those of you who participate in our food donation program, we are in particular need of peanut butter, spaghetti sauce, small canned hams, chicken and tuna.

Thanks again for your continued love, support and prayers.

God Bless us all.

An Invitation from the Office of the Lay Pastoral Ministry Institute (LPMI)

So often, people ask how they might grow in their faith. In response to this searching, our Bishop Emeritus Robert N. Lynch initiated the Lay Pastoral Ministry Institute. The LPMI is a four-year program: an informal year of discernment and three years of formal academic training and spiritual growth.

The initial segment of the program, the Year of Discernment, consists of eight Saturday sessions from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm. The classes meet at Christ the King Parish, located at 821 S. Dale Mabry Hwy, Tampa. Classes begin on September 8, 2018 and continue once monthly through April 2019.

The LPMI provides education and formation for laity in the Catholic faith. The program is designed to enhance personal faith and develop intellectual aptitude to enrich personal ministry. For anyone interested in attending the LPMI Year of Discernment, the registration form and program information can be found on the LPMI web site at: <https://www.dosp.org/lpmi/>

"God's people doing God's Work"

Or call the LPMI office at (727) 344-1611, ext. 5458. Registrations are due in the LPMI office no later than August 28, 2018. The Ministry Formation Program offered by the Diocese of St. Petersburg Lay Pastoral Ministry Institute is accredited by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Commission on Certification and Accreditation.

Classes begin in September 2018. Registration Forms are available at the Gift shop and the church office.

Renovaciones del Centro Goodman

Queremos agradecer a los que tan generosamente han contribuido para las renovaciones del Centro Goodman. Hasta la fecha de hoy, hemos recaudado $2600.00. El Centro Goodman es una instalación muy importante en nuestra parroquia, y juntos podemos restaurar ese edificio y usarlo para muchos eventos de la parroquia. Si desea hacer una donación, puede comunicarse con Pat en la oficina parroquial.

Misa con unción de los enfermos

- Comenzando en agosto 2018, el primer sábado de cada mes ofreceremos la Unción de los enfermos durante la misa de 9am.
- Si sabe de antemano que va a ser internado en el hospital o si tiene una enfermedad a largo término, los animamos a pedir recibir el Sacramento de la unción de los enfermos después de las misas, o puede llamar a la oficina parroquial si necesita hacer arreglos especiales.

Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz, dice el Señor;
yo las conozco y ellas me siguen.

Jn 10, 27

Formación en la Fe

La inscripción para la Educación Religiosa comienza el 12 de agosto después de las misas dominicales. Recuerden que los estudiantes que se están preparando para la Primera Comunión o la Confirmación necesitan recibir la educación religiosa por dos años consecutivos. Este año tendría que ser el segundo año para poder recibir los sacramentos. Si tiene alguna pregunta, puede comunicarse con Kim en la oficina parroquial.

Catequistas

¿Desea compartir su fe? Si desea, considere ofrecer su tiempo y talento para ayudar a los jóvenes de nuestra comunidad parroquial. Necesitamos voluntarios para ayudar en el programa de Formación en la Fe los domingos a las 10:30am. También necesitamos líderes adultos para el Ministerio Juvenil los miércoles a las 7pm.

El martes, 21 de agosto, tendremos una reunión con los catequistas actuales y todos aquellos que estén interesados en saber como pueden ayudar a nuestros jóvenes.

Bienaventurados somos

Muchas gracias a todos los que respondieron a la solicitud de participar en la Apelación Pastoral Anual 2018. Su donación es recibida con gran humildad, agradecimiento y gratitud por los miles de personas que son ayudadas por su donación. Este año, estamos celebrando el 50 aniversario ofreciendo servicio y buenas obras en nuestra diócesis, con gratitud por el pasado, gozo por el presente, y esperanza al acoger nuestro futuro. APA es una oportunidad de aprender más sobre los 50+ ministerios, programas y servicios que se ofrecen alrededor de nuestra diócesis. Si tiene alguna pregunta, puede llamar a la oficina parroquial o visitar el portal de la diócesis en www.dosp.org para descubrir que hay de nuevo en programas de vínculo con la comunidad ofrecidas por la Iglesia. Si todavía no ha respondido, sepan que queremos y necesitamos su cooperación. Cada donación, cada oración y cada sacrificio le da esperanza al que busca el amor y la misericordia de Cristo. ¡Sean parte de esa bendición!

¿Alguna vez se ha preguntado como los menos afortunados dentro de los límites de nuestra parroquia encuentran esperanza en su camino? ¡No tiene que volver a preguntarse! La Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl es una organización internacional laica que está activa en los Estados Unidos desde el 1845 y que ha estado activa en nuestra parroquia desde los 1980. Ofrece ayuda sin tener en cuenta la raza, el credo o el color. No anunciamos que existimos porque esto puede causar que se pierda el enfoque de nuestra misión principal de ayudar y darle apoyo al pobre y al necesitado. Como ha pedido el Papa Francisco, nosotros "nos encontramos con el pobre en sus hogares, en la mesa de sus cocinas o en sus salas". Vamos como Cristo envió a sus apóstoles, de dos en dos. Si desea más información sobre nuestra Sociedad, puede preguntarle a un vicentino.

No podemos ayudar sin el apoyo generoso de todos ustedes. Si su ayuda es comida, económica u oraciones por nuestra misión, todo tiene su origen en el corazón de nuestros generosos feligreses. Muchas gracias de parte de los pobres y necesitados de nuestra área.

Hubo una pequeña confusión en la colecta de este mes porque el tercer sábado y domingo que es normalmente nuestra colecta, resultó que no fue realmente el tercer fin de semana. Perdonen la confusión. Este domingo, estaremos donde siempre después de las misas de 8am y 9:30am. Para los que participan en el programa de donación de comida, necesitamos principalmente mantequilla de maní, salsa de espagueti, latas pequeñas de jamón, pollo y atún.

Una vez más, gracias por continuar ayudando con su amor, apoyo y oraciones.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos.

Muchas gracias a los feligreses que respondieron generosamente con promesas y donaciones para la 2018 Apelación Pastoral Anual. Su generosidad ayuda a nuestra parroquia con su responsabilidad económica.

Hasta hoy, hem recibido $29,570.00 de 104 familias para nuestra meta de $ 68,109.00. Cada donación hace la diferencia. Por favor, rece considerando dar el regalo de la esperanza a los necesitados.

Esta semana no tendremos reunión de WAY. Recen por nuestros jóvenes que se están preparando para ir a la Conferencia de Steubenville en Orlando. Que el Señor los bendiga.
