HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Being a father can be both frustrating and rewarding. The feeling of unconditional love from the first moment of seeing your child at birth is indescribable. At the same time knowing that it's your job to care and be responsible for this new person can be terrifying.

Guiding your children through life by teaching them right from wrong, balancing discipline and understanding to set boundaries are a challenging balancing act.

Letting them make their own decisions and hoping the lessons and examples that you have set have been absorbed to guide them. It can be hard not to interfere with this process and protect them.

However making mistakes is part of the learning process and develops them into the adults that they become. While being a father is not for the faint of heart it is an experience that I would recommend to anyone. — Dave O'Brien

For me, fatherhood means the unconditional love that I have for my children. It's made from a deeper love between my wife and myself. My children are a miracle that was orchestrated by our Holy Father.

I look at fatherhood as a dedication that is like no other, and doesn't go away just because my kids grow up and leave home. This dedication lasts a lifetime, and will always be with my kids no matter what happens.

Parenthood is a responsibility, but also a great gift given to a mother and a father by our Lord and Savior.

— C.J. Martin

As a parish we have been and were blessed to have a very special father for us all in Father George. He touched all of our hearts with his joy and ability to teach while making us smile.

As we contemplate Father leaving we thank the Diocese for their compassion and care and the willingness to nurture our parish by sending us true pastors.

Their grace in guiding us and the entire diocese for the last 50 years leave us feeling confident going forward that they will continue to use God's grace as they minister to his people.

— Bob and Loretta Johnston

This is Mike and Judy Shea with grandchildren Madelyn, Max and Clare Phelan. It has been the greatest joy and privilege to be a father raising a son and daughter as Christians in our Catholic faith. They are each, now, fine young adults that I am very proud of. There were, of course, challenging times as they were growing up, but I always felt that my wife and I had Christ to lean on as well as each other.

Now that I am a grandfather, I find immense joy in seeing our grandchildren also being raised in the Catholic faith. And I pray that I may be allowed to help in their journey to also become fine young adults in Christ.

Reflecting on my Journey to Most Holy Name of Jesus

Before I became the Music Director here at Most Holy Name in 2011, I was a parishioner at the Cathedral of St Jude. My family moved here in 1971 from Pittsburgh and we joined the parish. My earliest memory of the Cathedral is sitting in the pew in front of the ambo between my mom and grandma; looking at my white patent Mary Jane's and being captivated by the tall man (Bill Tapp) singing out of the red book. In that moment my love for St. Jude's began. The Cathedral became so many things to me including Faith, Family and Ministry.

The Cathedral holds such a special place in my heart because that is where I was rooted in my faith. Every Saturday my mom, grandma, sister and I went to Mass together and then to dinner. I always looked forward to those times. So many people that I crossed paths with there including Priests, Sr. Patricia Caulfield, Bill Tapp, Dr. Bill Picher and Michelle Rego, to name a few, have influenced and shaped me as a Catholic and a Music Minister. Through their works of ministry and faith in our Parish they molded the Cathedral into what it is now. When I was younger

I didn't understand how special it was to be a member of the Cathedral. It wasn't until singing at my first Diocesan Mass where I really understood what it meant and I was in awe. That feeling never seemed to wear off.

The Cathedral is where I made my First Communion, Penance and Confirmation. I was a student at St Jude School from 1st to 8th grade where we attended weekly Mass and I graduated 8th grade in the church. Later in life I would walk down that long red aisle and get married, watch my son be baptized in the Chapel that used to be our school cafeteria and cantor school Masses while my son was there as a student. I was also lucky enough to teach at the School and spend over 30 years serving in the music ministry. There was just something about St Jude's that drew me in and I wanted to be there as much as I could. I cherish the countless memories that the Cathedral has given to me. Here's to 50 more years of Faith, Family and Ministry in the Diocese of St. Petersburg

– Elisa Hughes

Forty-five years ago, we came to Mass at Holy Name and knew we were home in this warm and beautiful church. Unknowingly, this meant we were also nestled within a growing and wonderful Diocese, under the guidance of Bishop Mc Laughlin.

Our pastor, and founder was Fr. Goodman. He was always there for us spiritually, but, he was the first to pick up a hammer or shovel when service work was needed.

He loved our school, and insisted on outstanding academics, sports programs, and at least three major musical productions each year. As the fortunate music teacher, I was more than proud to direct these shows. In addition, the daily Masses with the school children are beloved memories never to be forgotten.

Our Bishops have continued to lead our diocese to the caring and generous one we have today. Numerous people have received assistance in all areas.

We congratulate the Diocese of St. Petersburg on the first fifty years, and pray that God will continue to bless our diocese with at least another fifty years of kind and sound leadership.

I arrived in St. Petersburg, actually Gulfport, in October of 2000 taking with me my younger daughter and her new family along. We joined the parish of Most Holy Name of Jesus, and my grandson, Anthony, who was 1 month old upon joining the parish, was Baptized at MHNJ!

Personally, I have enjoyed many aspects of being a member of the Diocese of St. Petersburg. I'm blessed and honored to read our Lord's Word at Mass, I've participated on the Parish Council for a number of years, worked with the parish on our annual festivals, more recently joining the Women's Ministry, and in general, enjoying the camaraderie of the many members of the parish family.

My daughters and their sons are members of St. Jude the Apostle Cathedral. My elder grandson, Anthony, graduating from The Cathedral school with Honors, and my youngest grandson, Shane, will graduate, God Willing, this coming year, also who is on the Honor Roll. Our family loves the Diocese of St. Petersburg family as is reflected from me to my grandchildren. Blessed to be here indeed! – Norma Robinson

Please join Padre George in the Social Hall after all Masses this weekend to say goodbye and thank you.

Light refreshments will be served, and there are cards to put a note for Father at the religious counter.

My first meeting with Father George was the Friday before his first weekend mass at Holy Name. He was taking pictures of the altar when I walked into the church around noon to go over with him how we do communion, i.e., where EMs stand and who goes where in the church. I thought it would be a short 15-20 minute briefing; an hour later I was still there talking like we had known each other for years. I will miss that easy way of interacting with Father George and hope that he comes back to our Diocese soon.

Happy Father's Day and Thank you to all who participated in the Knights of Columbus baby bottle campaign. Please return your bottles at the front of the church today. These special bottles will be reused by other upcoming pro-life campaigns.

Forgot your bottle? Just return it next week. Have an empty bottle? Please return that one too! Bringing back an empty bottle is just like donating $1.50 back into the pro-life effort! All support raised through your generosity will be used to help protect life and give help to our local pregnancy outreach center.

Rising Starz
Save the date

Please mark the date of Sunday, June 24, at 1pm

when the Rising Starz will stage a concert in our Social Hall. As many of you know, our own Christina Waldron is a member of Rising Starz. They will be performing songs from the hit musical "Guys and Dolls".

Please join them for an entertaining performance and relive the sounds of a great Broadway musical.

Mass Intentions are available in our 2018 Mass Book. Please stop by the church office to offer up Masses for your loved ones, and special intentions. Daily Masses are $10.00, and Sundays and Holy Days are $20.00.

Mass Intentions

Happy Sunday everyone! Wow! Our ministry is SO thankful for all the generosity of our community! We are so much closer to our financial goal and it has been through your blessings that have made that possible. From our hearts to yours, we thank you!

WAY will have our regular meeting this Wednesday at 7 in the youth room.

Feliz Día de los Padres

Hola, mi nombre es Arnaldo Vega. He sido miembro de esta parroquia desde que comenzó la comunidad hispana hace 15 años. He estado casado con mi esposa por casi 25 años y tenemos una hija y un hijo.

En todos estos años, he tenido el privilegio de ver a mis hijos crecer inmensamente en la fe católica. Como un papá católico, también he tenido el privilegio de ayudar como voluntario en el grupo juvenil de la parroquia, con la música y otros ministerios. Estas oportunidades me han permitido ver como Dios ha obrado en la vida de mis hijos.

He podido ver a Dios obrar en sus corazones a través de los años. Hoy en día, la fe de mis hijos ha dado mucho fruto. Mi hija es la ministra del grupo juvenil y está envuelta en otros ministerios. Mi hijo está en la Infantería de marina y mantiene su fe muy cerca de su corazón. Mi esposa dirige el grupo de oración en español y también está envuelta en otros ministerios. Como familia, hemos podido ofrecer nuestros talentos al servicio de nuestra comunidad.

Si usted busca la bendición de Dios para su familia, los invito a estar más envuelto como familia en la fe. Igual que invertimos tiempo en otras áreas como los deportes y las actividades escolares, como familia debemos invertir tiempo en nuestra parroquia. Verán como Dios va a bendecir a su familia como a bendecido la mía. Yo no soy un hombre perfecto pero ésta es la manera que Dios está obrando en mi vida.

No tema responder al llamado de Dios. Que Dios los bendiga.

Este es Andrés González con su esposa Anadelina y su hijo José.

Como directora de la Formación en la Fe de la parroquia, conocí a esta familia cuando vinieron a inscribirse para bautizar a su hijo. Por la manera en que Andrés ayudaba con su hijo, me dí cuenta que para él era muy importante ser un padre cristiano. Después, cuando buscábamos personas para que ayudaran en el Viacrucis, Andrés y su familia fueron los primeros voluntarios. Al poco tiempo le pedí que fuera el director del Viacrucis. Asumió el papel de líder con compasión, bondad y dedicación para su familia parroquial. Andrés vive su vida como un padre de fe aceptando el papel que Dios le ha dado.

La paternidad y la fe son palabras que deben ir tomadas de la mano. Como padre, debe confiar que el amor de sus hijos es lo que lo guía como padre y que la fe en nuestro Señor, Jesucristo va a ser transmitida a nuestros hijos. La verdadera paternidad implica que el padre tiene el papel de líder espiritual, enseñándole a los hijos la palabra de Dios.

Como padre y con la ayuda de mi familia, mi meta es proveer esta guía espiritual a Sofía y a Emily. Mi esperanza es que ellas continúen por el mismo camino espiritual que mis padres me inculcaron.

Mis hijas se bautizaron el pasado fin de semana. Yo creo que ellas van por el camino correcto y yo voy a continuar proporcionando, la guía espiritual en mi casa con la ayuda de mi familia y con la ayuda de mi familia de la iglesia.

Oración por Guatemala

Oración por todos los afectados por el terremoto en Guatemala

Señor del cielo y de la tierra,
Cuando las montañas se sacuden
y la tierra tiembla, tú eres inmutable.

Aunque los temblores pueden reconfigurar el horizonte, tú eres eterno.

Y es a ti a quien nos aferramos
y a ti a quien recurrimos ahora.

Acompaña al pueblo de Guatemala que se recupera de un terremoto.

Ayuda a los sobrevivientes a encontrar seguridad.

Ayuda a los rescatistas a encontrar
fuerza.

Ayuda a los dolientes a encontrar
consuelo.

Y si es tu voluntad
ayuda al pueblo de esta nación a encontrar
la unidad

mientras se enfrentan juntos a esta emergencia.

Amén

¡Tengan todo un domingo feliz!
¡Wow! ¡Nuestro ministerio está MUY agradecido por la generosidad de la comunidad! Estamos muy cerca de lograr nuestra meta económica y todo ha sido posible por la bendición de su generosidad. De todo corazón, ¡muchas gracias!

Este miércoles a las 7 pm en el salón juvenil, tendremos nuestra reunión habitual.

Feliz Día de los Padres y muchas gracias a todos los que participaron en la campaña del biberón de los Caballeros de Colón. Recuerden devolver el biberón en el frente de la iglesia. Estos mismos biberones se volverán a usar en el futuro en otras campañas pro-vida.

¿Se le olvidó traer su biberón? Lo puede traer la semana que viene. ¿Su biberón está vacío? Devuélvalo de todas maneras. Devolviendo el biberón vacío es como donar $1.50 al esfuerzo pro-vida. Todo lo que se recaude por su generosidad se usará para proteger vidas y ayudar a centro local de alcance comunitario para mujeres embarazadas.

Este fin de semana, los invitamos a compartir con el Padre George, para decirle adiós y darle las gracias. Se servirá una merienda ligera. Tendremos tarjetas en el mostrador de la tienda si desea escribirle una nota.
