THANKSGIVING

The word “thanksgiving” most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord’s Supper as “food we call ‘thanksgiving’ ” (in Greek eucharistia). The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor. The “thanksgiving” that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone.

While the food of Christ’s body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord’s Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self-righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

A Visit From Our Bishop

Diocese of Paterson

Clifton, New Jersey 07013

May 12, 2015

Dear Bishop Serratelli,

I would like to nominate George and Theresa Beausoleil for the Vivere Christus Award. Theresa and George have been a mainstay in our parish over the years. They have served in almost all areas of ministry including setting up the Coffee Shop for Sunday fellowship, the annual church picnic, as members of the choir and as Eucharistic ministers. They have been especially attentive to the needs of others in the parish welcoming to their home both family and parishioners who needed shelter during the ever present "storms" of life.

George has been very active in the Knights of Columbus Council in the parish serving as recruitment chairman and providing many creative fundraising ideas for the Council. Whatever the task at hand you can count on George to step up to the plate and lend his expertise and assistance.

Theresa has been a God send to our Liturgical Committee. She quietly works behind the scene to make sure that all the elements needed for the celebration of mass and all the changes needed for the various seasons are always ready and in perfect order. Sewing or cleaning the church Theresa does it all with dedication and a joyful spirit.

It is with great enthusiasm that I nominate George and Theresa Beausoleil for the Vivere Christus Award.

In Christ,

Msgr. Peter J. Doody
