Discipleship Reflection

"Truly, this was the Son of God." (Matthew 27:54). With those words, we are reminded of the significance of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. In a sense, we have spent the past several weeks pondering this, and considering what it means to us personally. This is, of course, part of the Passion as written in the Gospel of Matthew. On this Palm Sunday we begin our liturgies with a procession during which we hear the crowds shout and cheer as Jesus enters Jerusalem, "Hosanna in the highest." The word "Hosanna" in Hebrew is "Hoshiana" and in Jesus' native tongue Aramaic it is "Hosiana." Scholars generally agree that it meant "save" or "rescue" in Aramaic, and may have even meant "savior." The point is that the crowd senses the saving grace of Jesus Christ, and rejoices accordingly. Although we begin our Palm Sunday Mass with this joyful announcement, we will later, as part of the reading of the Passion, be chanting "Let him be crucified." Is this the same crowd? Have they turned so dramatically on the Savior? Our own lives may be filled with those kinds of contradictions. As Easter approaches and Lent draws to a close, as good stewards, we must work to embrace Jesus and to be a part of His glory. www.thecatholicsteward.com

Palm Sunday

Lenten Regulations

All Christ's faithful are obliged by divine law, each in his or her own way, to do penance. However, so that all may be joined in a certain common practice of penance, days of penance are prescribed.

On these days, the faithful are in a special manner to devote themselves to prayer, to engage in works of piety and charity, to fulfill their obligations more faithfully, and to deny themselves, especially by observing fast and abstinence according to the laws of the church.

Following are the Lenten penitential regulations issued for the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee:

Good Friday is days of fast. On days of fast, one full meal and two lesser meals are permitted. Eating between meals is not permitted. Catholics aged 18 to 59 are bound by this law.

All Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence. On days of abstinence, meat may not be taken. Catholics aged 14 and older are bound by this law. All of the faithful are obliged to do penance, but not all may be able to observe the above regulations of fast and abstinence because of ill health or other reasons. Persons legitimately excused from the laws of fast and abstinence are urged to practice other forms of penance and self-denial suitable to their condition. In addition, the faithful are urged to participate, if possible, in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass during the week; in the sacrament of penance; in Lenten devotions, family prayer, and scripture reading; and in sharing of their time and resources with the less fortunate.
