FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

AAA...Archbishop's Annual Appeal...Our 2013 Triple "A" (AAA) goal is $47,556.00. As of now we have received $28,555.00, leaving our Archdiocesan assessed Goal short by $19,001.00. Of that pledged amount, we have received, $23,155.00. Our Church community consists of 1832 families. Out of this total, only 151 families are participating in Triple "A". The Church realizes the hardship people are enduring these days, but the Church relies on your generosity to meet our obligations.

Please be as generous as you can be!

A note from the Pastor:

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As you know The Catholic Advocate, the official Archdiocesan newspaper, is not available in a printed format anymore. It is now published online and can be downloaded freely through the website of the Archdiocese of Newark – www.rcan.org. The website provides links to many other valuable resources, and is the main channel by which anybody can connect to our local church of Newark and be informed of the various activities sponsored by the Archdiocese itself.

A new resource, just coming off the press, will now keep up in touch with the way the 1.5 million of Catholics in the Archdiocese of Newark live their faith – the brand new monthly magazine New Jersey Catholic. A limited number of copies of the magazine are available this weekend by the front door of our church, for a suggestive donation of $2.50. Please consider subscribing to the magazine; yearly subscription is $23.00 for ten issues.

As we approach the end of the Year of Faith, I like to call your attention once again to the importance of getting – and reading! – good resources to nourish and enrich our Catholic faith. We are still offering some interesting books at a reasonable price, and we will soon make more interesting magazines available at a weekly or monthly basis. It doesn't cost too much to take a look at them, and find those that better help our faith formation and keep us up to date with current events. If you like to purchase any of those resources, please use the envelopes attached to each copy; you may bring it anytime to the rectory, or put it in the Sunday collection basket. Each item comes with a "suggested donation" – not a price! As church, we do not "sell"; we ask for donations to defray the cost for getting the copies we display. Of course, the word "donation" implies that you are asked to give what you can give! At our church, nobody buys or sells; all are rather called to share and contribute the way they can. And of course, if you can give more ...

In regard to our faith formation, I am very glad, this weekend, to announce our Adult Bible Study, which will begin in October. The program that is being offered this Fall is on the book of Revelation. As usual, participants will be able to choose either day or evening classes. You can find more information in this bulletin and on the flyers available by the doors of the church. Please, consider registering for this beautiful and enriching Bible study: it will change the way you read Scripture forever, and provide you with ways to apply it to your life.

With my blessing,

Fr. Paolo

A NEW BISHOP FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE !

Pope Francis has named Most Rev. Bernard A. Hebda, of the Diocese of Gaylord, Michigan, the Coadjutor Archbishop for the Archdiocese of Newark. The appointment was effective September 24. Welcome to our new bishop!

As coadjutor, Archbishop Hebda will assist our current Metropolitan Archbishop John J. Myers in the administration of the Archdiocese, and will automatically succeed Archbishop Myers upon his retirement, transfer or death.

Archbishop Hebda, 54, is a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. After earning a juris doctor degree from Columbia University School of Law, he enrolled at St. Paul Seminary in Pittsburgh, ultimately completing his theological studies at North American College in Rome and at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. He was ordained to the priesthood in Pittsburgh on July 1, 1989. He subsequently received a licentiate in canon law from the Gregorian in 1990.

Returning home to the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Bishop Hebda served in a variety of assignments, including parish ministry, tribunal work, and campus ministry. He was appointed in 1996 to work at the Holy See at the Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts, the Vatican office responsible for the interpretation of the Church's laws, especially the Code of Canon Law. In 2003, he became the Undersecretary of the Council. He was named the Fourth Bishop of the Diocese of Gaylord, Michigan, by Pope Benedict XVI in October of 2009.

Bishop Hebda has served as a member of the USCCB's Committee for the Protection of Children and Young People and presently serves on the USCCB Committee on Canonical Affairs and Church Governance. He also serves as the Episcopal Liaison for the National Catholic Student Coalition. By Vatican appointment, he is a member of the Executive Board of Caritas Internationalis and a Consultor for the Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts.

Let us all accompany Archbishop Hebda with our prayers, so that the Lord may always support and inspire him as he serves in our Archdiocese.
