This Week's Wisdom from Our Holy Father

POPE FRANCIS: AN EASTER MESSAGE

“Let us become agents of God’s mercy!”

Dear brothers and sisters in Rome and throughout the world: Happy Easter! Happy Easter! What a joy it is for me to announce this message: Christ is risen! I would like to visit every home and every family, especially where the suffering is greatest: in hospitals and in prisons. Most of all, I would like to enter every heart, for it is there that God wants to sow this Good News: Jesus is risen! There is hope for you! You are no longer in the power of sin or evil! Love has triumphed! Mercy has been victorious! The mercy of God always triumphs!

Like the women who were Jesus’s disciples, who went to the tomb and found it empty, we may also wonder what this event means (Luke 24:4). What does it mean that Jesus is risen? It means that the love of God is stronger than evil and stronger than death itself. It means that the love of God can transform our lives and let those desert places in our hearts bloom. God’s love can do this! This same love for which the Son of God became a man and followed the way of humility and self-giving to the very end: down to hell, to the abyss of separation from God; this same merciful love has flooded with light the dead body of Jesus, has transfigured it, and has made it pass into eternal life. Jesus did not return to his former life, to his earthly life. Instead, Jesus entered into the glorious life of God and he entered there with our humanity and opened for us a future filled with hope. This is what Easter is all about. It is the exodus, the passage of human beings from the slavery to sin and evil to the freedom of love and goodness. God is life, life alone, and we are his glory: the living human being.

Dear brothers and sisters, Christ died and rose once and for all, and for everyone, but the power of the Resurrection, this Passover from the slavery to evil to the freedom of goodness, must be accomplished in every age, in our concrete existence, and in our everyday lives. How many deserts, even today, do human beings need to cross?! Above all is the desert within – where we have no love for God or neighbor; when we fail to realize that we are guardians of all that the Creator has given us and continues to give us. God’s mercy can transform even the driest land into a garden. God’s mercy can restore life to dry bones (Ezekiel 37:1-14). So this is the invitation which I address to everyone: Let us accept the grace of Christ’s Resurrection! Let us be renewed by God’s mercy! Let us be loved by Jesus! Let us enable the power of his love to transform our lives! And let us become agents of his mercy – instruments through which God can water the earth, protect creation, and make justice and peace flourish! And so we ask the risen Jesus, who turns death into life, to change hatred into love, vengeance into forgiveness, and war into peace. Christ is our peace! And through him, we implore peace for all the world!

We pray for peace in the Middle East, particularly between Israelis and Palestinians, who struggle to find the road to agreement: that they may willingly and courageously resume negotiations to end a conflict that has lasted much too long. We pray for peace in Iraq: that every act of violence may end. And above all, we pray for dear Syria: for its people who have been torn by conflict and for refugees who wait for help and comfort. So much blood has been shed! How much suffering must there be before a solution to this crisis is found? We pray for peace in Africa which is still the scene of many violent conflicts. In Mali, may unity and stability be restored. In Nigeria, where attacks sadly continue and gravely threaten the lives of so many innocent people; and where great numbers of people, including children are held hostage by terrorists. We pray for peace in the Democratic Republic of Congo and in the Central African Republic where many have been forced to leave their homes and live in fear. We pray for peace in Asia and above all on the Korean peninsula: may disagreements be overcome and may a renewed spirit of reconciliation flourish.

We pray for peace in the whole world, still divided by greed looking for easy gain; wounded by the selfishness that threatens human life and the human family; the selfishness that continues in human trafficking which is the most extensive form of slavery in the twenty-first century. We pray for peace in the whole world, torn apart by violence linked to drug trafficking and by the exploitation of natural resources. We pray for peace to this our Earth! May the Risen Jesus bring comfort to the victims of natural disasters and make us responsible guardians of God’s creation.

Brothers and sisters, to all who are listening to me...I address this invitation from the psalms: “Give thanks to the Lord for he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever. Let Israel say: ‘His steadfast love endures for ever (Psalm 117:1-2)!” May the Risen Lord, the conqueror of sin and death, be a support to all of you, especially to the weakest and neediest. Thank you for your presence today...And I say affectionately again to all of you: May the Risen Christ guide you and all of humanity on the paths of justice, love, and peace!

Pastor’s Note: The preceding message is an English translation of the Holy Father’s first Easter Message which was delivered from the central balcony of Saint Peter’s Basilica on March 31, 2013. Its content and message remains equally compelling and relevant two years later. May God bless you at Easter and always! Peace and blessings to all!

Our Pastor's Message

A TOWERING CHALLENGE

On behalf of our senior priests, deacons, and pastoral team, we welcome you to the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport for the celebration of the Resurrection of the Lord at Easter! If you are a regular churchgoer, we are grateful for your ongoing presence, prayers, and generous support of our parish communities. If you are a guest or newcomer, we welcome you with open arms and open hearts. And we pray that you will continue to join us for the celebration of Mass and the many opportunities for prayer, fellowship, and service that are available at Holy Family Parish and Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish.

As we celebrate this time of new hope and new life, I am compelled to share with you what can only be called a "towering challenge" for the good and faithful people of Holy Family Parish. As many of you know, when I arrived here last summer, I was bombarded with opinions and questions about a proposal to build an elevator in Saint Ann Church. At that time, the cost of this proposal was nearly one million dollars (and approximately forty percent of the funds would have been borrowed from the Archdiocese of Boston).

There appeared to be much support for this project. However, after serving just a few weeks as your pastor, it became abundantly clear to me that there was also much concern and doubt about the project. And there were also many unanswered questions. How would we repay the loan or raise additional funds necessary to complete the project? Was there another way to improve access to the church and its restrooms for our disabled and elderly parishioners? And what would happen when we began construction on a project both inside and outside of a 125 year old church building?

Last fall, Michael Horgan (our new buildings & facilities manager who is also an experienced contractor with deep roots in our community) toured and inspected every inch of Saint Ann Church with me and with members of our pastoral team. What we found was both disturbing and disheartening. We discovered that the "virtue" of long-deferred maintenance has become the vice of deterioration and neglect throughout Saint Ann Church. The ceiling over the spot where the elevator would have opened into the church is cracked and crumbling. Archways and ceilings in the choir loft are crumbling and literally crashing to the floor to the point where we have now restricted all access to the choir loft and bell tower. The anchors, frames, pins, and sills that support both the large and small rose windows in the church have decayed to the point where they may have to be removed so that the structures that support them can be rebuilt. Likewise, the buttresses on the front of the church have deteriorated to the point where we fear that they are literally separating from the building. Both side entrances and vestibules of the church are in desperate and obvious need of much repair and refurbishment. And this to-do list does not include the long-overdue painting of the interior of the church or the long-overdue renovation of the parish hall.

Most of the problems described above have been caused by leaks in the bell tower that allow water to travel from the steeple, through the tower, between the exterior masonry and the interior plaster. These leaks are causing the tower, the east wall of the church, and the interior plaster in the choir loft and vestibule to deteriorate at an accelerated pace, causing damage to the front doors, walls, and woodwork of the church. And this "towering challenge" is worsened by severe winters which cause water to freeze, expand, melt and contract. Overall, this potentially ruinous situation is urgent and must be addressed now. In short, we have reached the point where major portions of our beautiful and historic church must be restored, not just repaired – for both safety and structural reasons. Again, we are not talking about just maintaining and repairing our church; we are now talking about restoring and saving it!

As I promised to you last fall, after consulting with our finance council and pastoral council, I commissioned an independent engineering firm to formally inspect our church buildings and report their findings. Needless to say, their formal inspection revealed results almost identical to our informal inspections. So after again consulting with our finance council, I gave approval to contract CBI Consulting of Boston to again inspect the church and tower in order to determine the cost of necessary repairs to restore Saint Ann Church and preserve it for future generations of parishioners. The cost of this inspection, study, and proposal is approximately $15,000 and includes the use a special crane to examine every aspect of the bell tower and steeple. These costs will be paid from the funds already raised as part of the Building Restoration & Accessibility Fund.

As we undertake this first step toward restoring Saint Ann Church and improving accessibility for all of our parishioners, I humbly ask for your prayers and support. I am committed to preserving and restoring this beautiful church. And I am confident that with God's help, we can accomplish our goals. As a people of faith, we know that with God, all is possible! May you and your family find peace and joy at Easter and always! Christ is risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Peace and blessings to all,
Father Jim

WINTER FUEL & UTILITIES COLLECTION Our Goal: $10,000 · Donations: $10,638.78

Like any household or family business, the winter season posed a serious financial challenge to Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish. Each year, we pay tens of thousands of dollars in combined fuel & utilities costs for the church, rectory, hall, and school. And whether you own or rent your home, you know that utility bills have rose dramatically this winter!

This year, we asked all parishioners to give what they can to our Winter Fuel & Utilities Collection. Every contribution, whether it's $1 or $10 or $100, will go directly to Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish. Our goal was to raise $10,000! And we have now reached and surpassed our goal by raising $10,638.78! Thank you!

Financial information for Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish is now printed each week in our bulletin (see page six). And Father Jim will soon announce the formation of a new finance council at Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish. For more information about parish finances, please contact Father Jim at 978-281-4820 or frjim@ccgonline.com. Thank you for your generous support!

Youth Faith Formation Update

HOLY FAMILY PARISH

Thank You, Catechists & Volunteers!

On behalf of Father Jim, Dawn Alves, and our pastoral team, special thanks to all of our catechists, hall monitors, and volunteers for their dedication to our youth faith formation program which concluded last weekend.

The Catholic Church teaches that parents and families are the first teachers of children in all things, including matters of faith. But we also know that our catechists, hall monitors, and volunteers support our parish families by helping every child understand the gift of salvation that comes with faith in our Risen Lord.

Our team of committed volunteers offers both instruction and living witness to our faith for every child who participates in our program. We are eternally grateful for their enthusiasm, commitment, and boundless kindness.

In a special way, we also thank Gerry O'Neil and Grover Cronin who are retiring from our program after decades of faithful and faith-filled service. Grover has taught at various grade levels for more than thirty years! Gerry has taught High School Confirmation for more than thirty-five years! They are both incredible examples of our parish community's dedication to prayer, fellowship, and service. We thank them and we will miss them!
