Our Pastor's Message

THE MEANING OF COLLABORATION: ONE FLOCK, ONE SHEPHERD, ONE MISSION

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus proclaims that he is the Good Shepherd who leads, loves, and lays down his life for his flock. Jesus assures us that the Good Shepherd's love is boundless, that it extends to all people, even those who may not be part of his flock, even those who may not be disciples. This statement is about faith, hope, and trust in the Lord who will stand with us no matter what. Each of us, regardless of the status of our personal faith journey, is part of Christ's flock. And each of us, regardless of our faults and failures is loved beyond measure by Christ Jesus, the Good Shepherd.

During the past few weeks, I have had an opportunity to consult with our pastoral team, our parish councils, representatives from all of our parish organizations, and many of our fellow parishioners about changes that must be made to our weekend worship schedule. These changes, which will be announced in next weekend's bulletin and online, will reflect the increasingly clear reality that only one priest will be assigned full-time to the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport. So, this seems like a very good time to consider and reflect on the precise meaning and nature of the growing collaboration between Holy Family Parish and Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish in the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport.

First, this collaboration is not a merger. Both parishes retain their independence under canon law. Both parishes maintain separate bank accounts, budgets, and accounting procedures. Each parish is solely responsible for its own finances and for the maintenance of its own buildings. And each parish will soon have its own finance council. Anyone who tells you otherwise is wrong — just plain wrong.

Second, although we are a collaboration of two parishes, we are served by one pastoral team. For example, Linda Rogers serves as Business & Financial Manager for both parishes; Michael Horgan serves as Buildings & Facilities Manager for both parishes; Anna Matturro serves as Minister of Pastoral Care for both parishes; and Cliff Garvey serves as Minister of Evangelization for both parishes. Over the past year, our two parishes have begun to share the costs of employing our able and dedicated team of lay ministers.

In addition, I am happy to announce that Jane Russo, who has served as many years on the cleaning and maintenance staff at Holy Family Parish, has accepted the position of Sacristan of the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport. Jane's duties include ensuring the cleanliness of our worship spaces, ordering liturgical supplies, organizing our sacrifices, and assisting me and others in planning liturgical celebrations like the Easter Triduum. Jane is a person of deep faith, a daily Mass goer, a devoted wife and mother, and a tireless worker. She now becomes officially what she has been unofficially for a long time: a valued member of our one pastoral team.

Third, although we are a collaboration of two parishes, we are served by one pastor. By now, you know already that I am humbled and honored to serve as your pastor and shepherd of this island flock. I wanted to come here. I am happy to be here. And I am committed to ensuring that our two parishes work together successfully in order to share the gospel with every person who enters one of our churches in search of God's consolation, forgiveness, and peace.

If you look on the back of a quarter or search the internet for an image of the Great Seal of the United States, you will see one of this nation's mottos: "E Pluribus Unum." This Latin phrase translates into English as "Out of Many, One." In the context of a civic lesson, we can learn that from fifty independent and sovereign states, we are one nation. And as one nation, we share the burdens of education, national defense, and social justice. Likewise, we know that from two historic and independent parishes, we are one flock with one shepherd; we are one community: the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport. And as one community — united in prayer, fellowship, and service — we share the mission of sharing the Gospel of Christ with each other, with those who have fallen away from the faith, and with those who might yet discover the awesome beauty and challenge of becoming disciples of the Risen Lord.

As we continue this journey together, I ask for your prayers — for me, for our deacons and senior priests, for our pastoral team, and for everyone who lives, works, and worships in the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport. Your prayers give me strength each and every day! Your prayers literally change the lives of our fellow parishioners who join us for Mass or for any one of our wonderful programs and events. Your prayers are the spiritual glue that bring and bind us together as one community with one shepherd and one mission: to love and serve the Lord and each other. And as always, as your pastor and shepherd of this one community of faith, I offer my prayers for you and for your families each and every day.

Peace and blessings to all,
Father Jim

Youth Faith Formation Update

HOLY FAMILY PARISH Celebration of First Holy Communion

This year, forty-seven students in our youth faith formation program will receive the Body and Blood of the Risen Lord for the first time. As our final parish celebration of First Holy Communion approaches, all are reminded of our upcoming schedule:

Saint Ann Church
First Holy Communion Rehearsal
Friday, May 1st at 4:30pm

Saint Ann Church
First Holy Communion Celebration
Sunday, May 3rd at 10:45am Mass

As we make final preparations for First Holy Communion at Holy Family Parish, please pray for all of our students, their parents, families and catechists!

Once again, we offer our sincere congratulations and prayers for those young fellow parishioners who received their First Holy Communion on Easter Sunday (RCIC) and on Divine Mercy Sunday (Grade 2) at Saint Joachim Church. May God bless all of our students, their families, and our wonderful volunteers! Thank you!

For more information about youth faith formation at Holy Family Parish, please contact Dawn Alves at 978-281-4820 or dalves@ccgronline.com.

HOLY FAMILY PARISH Grade 9 Family Mass & Meeting Sunday, April 26th · Saint Ann Church Begins with Mass at 10:45am

Along with Baptism and Eucharist, Confirmation is one of the Catholic Church's Sacraments of Initiation through which we receive the Gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, right judgment, fortitude, knowledge, reverence, and wonder and awe. These gifts help us to grow stronger in faith and in our commitment to love and serve others.

As our Confirmation Preparation Program concludes for this school year, all ninth grade students, their parents, and sponsors are expected to join us for Mass on Sunday, April 26th at 10:45am in Saint Ann Church.

After Mass, Father Jim will lead a mandatory meeting of all students and their parents in the church. At this meeting, we will discuss the basic requirements of our program (including community service) and distribute a packet of forms that must be completed by all students and their sponsors.

For more information about our Confirmation Preparation Program at Holy Family Parish, please contact Dawn Alves at 978-281-4820 or dalves@ccgronline.com.

A Message from Father Al

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN, FAREWELL & ADEUS!

As you know, this is my last weekend here in the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport. After spending some time visiting family and friends in other parts of this country, I will journey back to Brazil where I served for nearly two decades as a missionary priest with the Society of Mary.

During the past two years, I have made many new friends on this island; and I am grateful for their kind and generous spirits. I am grateful to the Brazilian Community for their deep faith and enthusiasm. What they lack in numbers, they make up for in spirit!

I am grateful to our pastoral team and volunteers for their caring, dedication, and good fellowship. I am especially grateful to Jane, Lori, Barbara, and Cliff for reminding me again and again to eat right and dress warmly!

I am grateful to the parishioners at both Holy Family Parish and Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish for their warm welcome and their strong commitment to sharing the Good News of Jesus in this community and beyond.

And finally, I am deeply grateful to our pastor, Father Jim, for all that he has done for me and all that he does for us day after day. We are truly blessed to have this faith-filled and hardworking young priest as our pastor. I pray that you will continue to pray for him and support him in his priestly ministry. Thanks, Jim, for your good and generous friendship!

Until we meet again, may God bless our pastor and the good and faithful people of the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport! Farewell and adeus!

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM OUR HOLY FATHER

"It is truly the most wonderful experience we can have:
to belong to a people walking,
journeying through history together with our Lord, who walks among us!
We are not alone; we do not walk alone.
We are part of the one flock of Christ
that walks together."

In this way, we will let them know that we pray for them and that we think of them and the challenges they face everyday in providing food, housing, and health care to their families. Cards will be provided. Everyone who attends will be asked to send a message (and perhaps a donation) to help the mothers provide for their families.

In addition, we will be electing new officers for 2015-2017. For more information about the Women's Guild at Holy Family Parish, please contact Arlene Lesch at arlene.lesch@outlook.com. Please join us! All are welcome!

Our next meeting is scheduled for Sunday, May 17th beginning at 12:00pm in Our Lady of Good Voyage Church. After Mass, Cliff Garvey will offer a reflection entitled "Saint Francis of Assisi: The Conversion" which will focus on how Christ called Francis to leave the world and to "rebuild" the Church by living a life of prayer and simplicity. It's a dramatic story of faith, hope, and transformation that still speaks to us eight centuries later. After Cliff's reflection, we adjourn to the parish hall for a lunch.

If you would like to join us, please contact Cliff Garvey at cgarvey@ccgronline.com by May 13th so that we can plan adequately for food and drink.
