Celebrating First Holy Communion

*While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it, he broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said,
"Take, eat; this is my body."
Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he gave it to them saying,
"Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."*

THANK YOU!

Under the guidance of Dawn Alves, Cheryl O'Brien, and our team of dedicated volunteer catechists, these sixty-eight young fellow parishioners have prayed, studied, and grown together in prayer, fellowship, and service during the past seven months. They have been well-prepared to receive the Body & Blood of the Risen Lord for the first time.

The children who have received their First Holy Communion this year wish to thank their parents, families and friends for their love, prayers, and support. In particular, they wish to express their appreciation to those who helped them prepare for their First Holy Communion: Father Jim Achadinha, Dawn Alves, Mary Duran, Paul Makowski, Christine Martin, Cheryl O'Brien, Marie Orlando, Nancy Rose, Annette Spanks, and Candace Waldron.

Finally, please pray for all of our young fellow parishioners, their parents, and families so that they will continue to grow in faith, hope, and love; and that they will continue to join us for Mass! Please also pray in thanksgiving for our pastoral team and our dedicated volunteers who made these celebrations possible. Thank you! May God bless you!

Our Pastor's Message

OUR NEW WORSHIP SCHEDULE: A TIME FOR PRAYER & DISCERNMENT

This weekend, sixty-eight of our youngest fellow parishioners from both Holy Family Parish and Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish will receive the Body & Blood of Christ for the first time. These annual celebrations of First Holy Communion are a time of great joy for our students, for their parents and families, and for our parishes.

For me and for the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport, this time of great blessing and joy also has been a time for much prayer and discernment. During the past month, we have had much to pray about. First, Father Al Puccinelli has accepted a new pastoral assignment back in Brazil where he had served for many years before joining our community. Second, it is now clear that I will be the only priest assigned full-time to our two parishes. And finally, although we are very grateful for their help, our two senior priests are already doing what they can in retirement to help serve our two parishes.

In recent weeks, I have consulted with our pastoral team, both of our parish councils, our finance councils, many of our fellow parishioners, and representatives from all of our parish ministries and organizations about the need for a new weekend worship schedule. Their good advice, wise counsel, and generosity of spirit were invaluable in helping me to pray, discern, and decide how best to balance the pastoral needs of our parish communities and the pastoral and priestly resources available to us at this time.

This new schedule (see left) will begin during the weekend of May 30th-May 31st. My hope and prayer is that this schedule, which reflects the shared sacrifice of both parishes, will continue to build, deepen, and strengthen the growing collaboration between Holy Family Parish and Our Lady of Good Voyage Parish. As I share this new worship schedule with you, I am reminded of the parishioner who recently told me that wherever Jesus goes, she will follow. I hope that you will join her and me on this challenging journey of faith, hope, and love!

Earlier this week, we learned that Father Michael McLellan, Pastor of Saint John the Evangelist in Canton, died suddenly at the start of Mass last Sunday morning. Father Mike was just 64 years old. He was a good and faithful priest who dedicated his life to serving God's Church throughout the Archdiocese of Boston. He will be greatly missed. Please pray for him and his grieving parish!

As our journey continues, please pray for me, for Father Alves and Father Gariboldi, for all of our brother priests who devote their lives to the people of God, and for all who live, work, and worship in the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport! Thank you!

Peace and blessings to all,
Father Jim

SATURDAY MORNING with SAINT FRANCIS Saturday, May 16th · Begins at 7:30am

More than 800 years ago, Saint Francis of Assisi encouraged a great devotion to Our Blessed Mother as a way of growing closer to Christ Jesus. As a way of encouraging that same devotion in our own times, all are invited to join the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport for 'Saturday Morning with Saint Francis' on Saturday, May 16th at Saint Ann Church.

Our program will begin at 7:30am with Morning Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours and an hour of Eucharistic Adoration. At 8:30am, Father Jim will celebrate our Daily Mass. After Mass, Cliff Garvey will offer a brief reflection on Saint Francis of Assisi's devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. We will conclude by praying the Franciscan Rosary, during which we will meditate on the Seven Joys of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

After the Franciscan Rosary, all are welcome to join us for fellowship and faith sharing at Saint Ann Rectory. Coffee, tea, and light refreshments will be served. For more information, please contact Cliff Garvey at 978-281-4820 or cgarvey@ccgrounline.com. Please join us for all or part of this special morning of prayer and devotion! All are invited! All are welcome! May the Lord give you peace!

THE ASSISI PROJECT SAINT FRANCIS of ASSISI: THE CONVERSION Sunday, May 17th · Begins at 12:00pm

Founded in 2007 by Father Jim and Cliff Garvey, the Assisi Project is an international fellowship of "Franciscans in Spirit" that is dedicated to helping adults of all ages to more faithfully live the Gospel of Christ in the spirit of Saint Francis and Saint Clare of Assisi. We gather regularly for Mass, a community meal, and a period of faith formation and discussion.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Sunday, May 17th beginning at 12:00pm in Our Lady of Good Voyage Church. After Mass, Cliff Garvey will offer a reflection entitled "Saint Francis of Assisi: The Conversion" which will focus on how Christ called Francis to leave the world and to "rebuild" the Church by living a life of prayer and simplicity. It's a dramatic story of faith, hope, and transformation that still speaks to us eight centuries later. After Cliff's reflection, we adjourn to the parish hall for a lunch.

If you would like to join us, please contact Cliff Garvey at cgarvey@ccgrounline.com by May 13th so that we can plan adequately for food and drink. For more information about the Assisi Project and upcoming opportunities for prayer, fellowship, and pilgrimage in the Franciscan tradition, please join us online at assisiproject.com. May the Risen Lord give you peace!

HOLY FAMILY PARISH WOMEN'S GUILD Monthly Meeting · Tuesday, May 5th at 7:00pm

The Women's Guild of Holy Family Parish will hold its next monthly meeting on Tuesday, May 5th at 7:00pm in Monsignor Sullivan Hall (Saint Ann Church).

Our Risen Lord reminds us to remember those most in need. And May is traditionally dedicated to honoring Our Blessed Mother. So this month, the Women's Guild will combine these themes by sending Mother's Day cards to mothers in Cevicos, our sister parish in the Dominican Republic. In this way, we will let them know that we pray for them and that we think of them and the challenges they face everyday in providing food, housing, and health care to their families. Cards will be provided. Everyone who attends will be asked to send a message (and perhaps a donation) to help the mothers provide for their families.

In addition, we will be electing new officers for 2015-2017. For more information about the Women's Guild at Holy Family Parish, please contact Arlene Lesch at arlene.lesch@outlook.com. Please join us! All are welcome!
