Grandparents Day
& Other Special
People!

St. William School Celebrates Our Grandparents (and other Special People)

On Friday, September 13th, St. William School held Mass for our Grandparents. The celebration was led by Mrs. Colletti's 5th grade, alongside Fr. Robert, and they did a wonderful job! The choir was in fine form and all the children sang a special song for the grandparents that were sitting with them in the pews. After Mass, the grandparents were invited into the school for refreshments and a visit in the classroom with their grandchild or special friend. It was a beautiful celebration of love and friendship and we invite our grandparents to come back and share Mass with us during our monthly Family Mass, too!

ANIMAL BLESSING

In honor of St. Francis of Assisi, we will have our annual animal blessing in front of church on Sunday, October 6th at 1:15pm. Please have all pets on a leash or in a pet carrier. If your pet is a little bit aggressive or gets nervous around strangers, just stand off to the side away from others, and we will come to you to bless your pet. Safety first please.
