PREPARING FOR NEXT WEEK'S LITURGY

Twenty-fourth Sunday of the Year

First Reading: Isaiah 50:5-9

Chapters 40-55 of the book of Isaiah contain the message of a prophet who spoke to God's people during their exile in Babylon. Several times, the prophet speaks about a "Servant of God" who will one day deliver God's people and face many sufferings in doing so. Christians have traditionally identified Jesus with this "suffering Servant".

Second Reading: James 2:14-18

Among the New Testament letters, the letter of James is the one most attentive to social justice. Today's passage offers practical advice about how to put our faith into action.

Be Opened

Suggested Reflection Questions

- here are beautiful images in the first reading of people's infirmities being cured and of water rushing through the desert – God's grace evident in dramatic changes. Have you ever seen God work in such big ways? Or has God come into your life in a more subtle way?
- In today's Gospel, Jesus says to the deaf man, "Be opened!" Can you imagine Jesus saying those words to you? What in you needs to be healed so that you can be more open to God?
- Why do you think Jesus told the people who witnessed this healing not to tell anyone about it? Why do you think they spread the word anyway?

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Reach out in tolerance

How do we love others who are different from ourselves? Nostrae Aetate, the Second Vatican Council declaration on non-Christian religions, offers wisdom for relating with anyone whose beliefs or behaviors differ from our own. The Council exhorts us, for example, to engage in “dialogue and collaboration . . . with prudence and love and in witness to the Christian faith and life.” Further, we are called to “recognize, preserve, and promote the good things, spiritual and moral, as well as the socio-cultural values” that we share in common. A tall order, but necessary if we truly wish to conform ourselves to the gospel.

TODAY’S READINGS: Isaiah 35:4-7a; James 2:1-5; Mark 7:31-37 (128). “My brothers and sisters, show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ.”

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

Labor heartily

Labor Day is a celebration of the value and contributions of workers. Remember, Pope John Paul II said, workers “want to share in the responsibility and creativity of the very work process.” Work is a gift to be appreciated, not a burden to escape. You are a steward of the talents God gave you, and you’ve been entrusted to use them to their fullest. Work is an opportunity to give your best to others, so that you may take care of yourself and others as best you can.

TODAY’S READINGS: Colossians 1:24-2:3; Luke 6:6-11 (437). “. . . I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.”

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY Like Mary, be a bearer of hope

Today, we celebrate the birth of Mary. Although the circumstances of her infancy and early life aren’t directly recorded in the Bible, the “Protoevangelium of James,” a document written very early in Christian tradition, describes Mary as being born in Jerusalem to Joachim and Anne in their old age, when they had given up hope of having children. Mary lived an ordinary life—until an angel appeared! The angel spoke of the child she would bear, a child who’d be a sign of hope, especially for the downtrodden. As we honor Mary’s birth, consider how you might be a source of hope to others on this day.

TODAY’S READINGS: Micah 5:1-4a or Romans 8:28-30; Psalm 13:6ab, 6c; Matthew 1:1-16, 18-23 (636). “Behold, the virgin shall bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means ‘God is with us.’”

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9 FEAST OF PETER CLAVER, PRIEST Meet injustice with prophetic witness

Four hundred years ago, the slave trade flourished in the Spanish colonial city of Cartagena. Thousands of slaves were unloaded there every year after inhumane crossings in wretched conditions on slave ships run by European colonial powers. Jesuit Claver couldn’t stop the trade but he could take a radical stance in the face of it. Declaring himself “slave to the slaves forever” he worked tirelessly to alleviate their suffering and bring them healing and hope. How will you respond to the injustice in front of you?

TODAY’S READINGS: Colossians 3:1-11; Luke 6:20-26 (439). “Rejoice and leap for joy! Your reward will be great in heaven.”

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10 Set the bar high

“Virtue is a habitual and firm disposition to do good,” says the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The seven heavenly virtues are chastity, temperance, charity, diligence, patience, kindness, and humility. Each has an opposite counterpart among the seven deadly sins. Handy lists. Stick to one, not the other. Simple, right? Well, it’s a lot easier to be virtuous with your nearest and dearest, who love and care for you, but you have to practice virtues with everyone, even those you believe are in the wrong, to experience the wonderful fullness of what those virtues mean.

TODAY’S READINGS: Colossians 3:12-17; Luke 6:27-38 (440). “. . . love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.”

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11 Grave violation

Blasphemy is one of those old-time words you don’t hear much, except in the Bible, which has a lot to say about this very serious sin—maybe the most serious. But what exactly is it? Simply, it’s speaking against God; it’s ridiculing sacred things or persons; it’s holding anything related to God in contempt. There are even specific prayers and devotions, called Acts of Reparation, to repair the sin of those guilty of blasphemy. Don’t make those necessary: Don’t take the Lord’s name in vain.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Timothy 1:1-2, 12-14; Luke 6:39-42 (441). “I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and an arrogant man, but I have been mercifully treated . . .”

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF MARY How many ways can you say “full of grace”?

Some feasts seem curious until we appreciate their context. The Most Holy Name of Mary was honored in Spain as a counterpoint to the Most Holy Name of Jesus. It was a local observance until 1683, when the king of Poland won a battle under the name of the Virgin and Pope Innocent XI extended the feast to the whole church. The Marian titles prayed today in the various versions of the Litany of Mary provide a wonderful meditation on why this “Summit of Virtue” is the “glory of the human race.”

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Timothy 1:15-17; Luke 6:43-49 (442). “For every tree is known by its fruit.”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

One Minute Meditations

St. Robert Bellarmine

A Jesuit, Robert was a scholar devoted to studying and writing about church history, Scripture and the fathers of the Catholic Church. He taught against the divine right of kings and became unpopular. He worked to accurately record Church doctrine to explain and protect it from attack by Protestants. Although a cardinal and counselor to Pope Clement VIII, he lived and ate like the poor. He was canonized and declared a doctor of the Church.

Let go of the dream

Who wouldn't want to live the "good life?" Imagine having all the money you need, going on exotic vacations, and owning your dream home. Yet, people who have all the world can offer still say they don't have all they want. That's because the good life isn't here on Earth.

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Discover God's plan of love for you

A vocation is a call from God to love him throughout your life. Whether you are called to be married, a priest or deacon, a religious brother or sister, or committed to staying single, your vocation will bring you the most joy you can experience on Earth. It will help you and others to grow closer to God. Here are some ways you can better discern God's plan for you.

Personally meet him. The Church's sacraments are opportunities to meet God personally and receive his grace. We can meet him often in the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Sacred Scripture is another opportunity for personal encounter. The more we open ourselves up to Our Lord, the more easily we can discern his voice.

Follow in another's footsteps. Find role models in the different vocations. See if you can picture yourself doing what he or she does each day.

Ask for details of their vocation stories to see how God chose them. That will give you clues to how you are being called.

Keep in touch. Keeping a prayer journal is a good way to spot patterns that may show God is working in your life. Pick a prayer buddy and pray for each others' vocations. Spend time in front of the Blessed Sacrament when you can.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics only get baptized once?

The Catholic Church tells us that Baptism is the gateway to the Church, and the beginning of a lasting communion with God. At our Baptism, God adopted us as his children and "marked" us as his forever. This spiritual mark of Christ opens us to grace, helps us resist the temptation to sin, and inspires us to love God and neighbor more perfectly (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1121). This mark is permanent, so we are only baptized once.

Back-to-School Prayer

God of all knowledge,

you knew us when we were still in our mother's womb.

You know our comings and our goings.

Grant us wisdom to act on the knowledge we have of you, and humility to admit when we do not know what to do.

Bless our minds with the knowledge of you and how you sent your Son into the world to show us the way to you.

Bless all students who are preparing to go back to school.

Bless their teachers and aides that help them to learn.

In addition, give us who are parents the ability to be the first teachers in the faith we have received from our parents

We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother.

Amen.

Labor Day Blessing

O God,

you asked St. Joseph to accept your will that his wife-to-be would have a Son.

St. Joseph accepted your will and worked with Jesus as his father and teacher.

We seek your blessing upon all the work of our hands, and we dedicate our work to your greater glory.

We ask your blessing upon all workers, especially those who work to make our lives easier and more enjoyable.

We ask all this through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron saint of workers, in the name of Jesus your Son, in the unity of Holy Spirit.

Amen.

St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us.
