15th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 12, 2015

A MESSAGE FROM FR. JERRY

“Take me out to the ballgame...” The Knights of Columbus is hosting a trip to Target Field on Sunday, July 26th, leaving the St. Peter parking lot by chartered bus at 7:30 am for a 1:10 pm game featuring the Twins and the Yankees. The trip is open to youth of St. Peter's and St. Catherine's who were promised this trip as a reward for CRE attendance, etc.; the Confirmation Class of 2015 from Sisseton and Rosholt; the Altar Servers who have been faithful to their scheduled times of serving, parents of the above and Knights of Columbus members and families depending on space. Youth tickets will be covered by the Knights. All participants must call the Catholic Community Office (698-7414) and register no later than Monday, July 20th if they wish to go. Please be sure that you can go if you register since space is limited and we do not want to reserve places for those who will end up not going. Thank you to the Knights for organizing this trip for our youth.

We welcome Bishop Paul Swain on Tuesday for St. Catherine's July 14th celebration where the Parish Name will change to St. Kateri Tekakwitha Parish. The celebration will begin at 5 PM with the formal unveiling of the new sign. During the Mass with Bishop Swain, a new bronzed sculpture of St. Kateri given to the parish will be blessed. All are welcome to attend. A meal will follow at which door prizes will be awarded, including a gas grill, 5-person tent, and other outdoor items. Help us celebrate the first Native American Saint. May her prayerful intercession bless the parish named after her and bring many to a renewed interest in and practice of the Catholic faith.
