MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Michael's Catholic Parish, are many parts, but one body. As a community of believers in Jesus Christ and inspired by the Holy Spirit, we celebrate the sacraments, are challenged by Sacred Scripture and Roman Catholic Tradition, share of ourselves in service to others, and strive to promote the dignity of all human life and justice for all, as we continue toward the eternal glory of God's kingdom.

FROM THE PASTOR . . .

This Memorial Day weekend we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi. In this celebration, we reflect on the meaning and importance of receiving Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Through this sacrament, we are given the love of our Lord who freely sacrificed his life not only on the cross but also through his Last Supper when bread and wine were changed into his flesh and blood. As we receive the Eucharist, the love of our Lord gives us peace and mercy, two attributes in life which everyone is striving to find and live out in their lives. This is why the Eucharist is such a wondrous gift. We can't thank the Lord enough for giving us such a generous and frequent gift of his love.

As we celebrate Corpus Christi Sunday, we also join our nation in remembering our fallen citizens who have given their lives in service of our nation. We, as a nation, need to take time to remember and be grateful for the supreme sacrifice these individuals were willing to make in defense and protection of the liberties and freedoms which we hold so dear to our hearts. Let us acknowledge in our prayer the debt of gratitude we owe to these countless individuals who gave their lives in defense of our nation. May they rest in peace. I wish you a blessed and safe holiday.

*Peace,
Fr. John*

Growing In Faith?: What does the Eucharist mean to me?

Laudato Si' Encyclical —

The Good News People present sections from the concluding chapters of Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si' (Praise Be to You). The encyclical is subtitled, On Care for Our Common Home.

Human ecology also implies another profound reality: the relationship between human life and the moral law, which is inscribed in our nature and is necessary for the creation of a more dignified environment. Pope Benedict XVI spoke of an "ecology of man" based on the fact that "man too has a nature that he must respect and that he cannot manipulate at will." (from address in Berlin September 22, 2011) It is enough to recognize that our body itself establishes us in a direct relationship with the environment and with other living beings. The acceptance of our bodies as God's gift is vital for welcoming and accepting the entire world as a gift from the Father and our common home, whereas thinking that we enjoy absolute power over our own bodies turns, often subtly, into thinking that we enjoy absolute power over creation. Learning to accept our body, to care for it and to respect its fullest meaning, is an essential element of any genuine human ecology. Valuing one's own body in its femininity or masculinity is necessary if I am going to be able to recognize myself in an encounter with someone who is different. In this way, we can joyfully accept the specific gifts of another man or woman, the work of God the Creator, and find mutual enrichment. It is not a healthy attitude which would seek "to cancel out sexual difference because it no longer knows how to confront it." (from Catechist, April 15, 2015)

Annual Diocesan Appeal Update — St. Michael Parish parishioners can be proud of the effort being made to meet this year's annual appeal assessment. 42 families have given to this appeal that did not donate last year. Thank you. A total of 194 families have donated or pledged this year helping us to reach 94% of our goal. We still need $3,141 and are confident that if our remaining families would add to this collection we can make our goal. Thanks for all of your efforts. Every contribution helps us to meet our $53,146 assessment.

Your Donations To Catholic Charities At Work —

Barry (named changed) is a former gang member who turned his life around, when after serving time in prison, he entered a Catholic Charities reentry program. There he received the guidance and support he needed to reject violence and crime. Now he is a Peer Mentor in the same program, and he is studying for his social work degree at a local university. Barry credits Catholic Charities for helping him make a change in his life. "I did then what I knew how to do. Now that I know better, I do better."

Food Pantry Collection — is next weekend, June 4-5. West Central Community Action continues to thank us for taking an interest in reducing hunger in Shelby County. Whatever you can donate will be greatly appreciated.

St. Michael's Parish Offices — will be closed Monday, May 30, in observance of Memorial Day.

Jubilee Year Of Mercy — We have to listen to the Holy Spirit. It's within each one of us. Listen! What does the Holy Spirit tell us? That God is good, God is the Father, God loves us, that God always forgives. Listen to the Holy Spirit! The Holy Spirit teaches us to see life with the eyes of Christ and to live life the way Christ wants us to live it. The Spirit teaches us to understand life as Christ understood it."

— Pope Francis, General Audience, May 8, 2013
