MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Michael's Catholic Parish, are many parts, but one body. As a community of believers in Jesus Christ and inspired by the Holy Spirit, we celebrate the sacraments, are challenged by Sacred Scripture and Roman Catholic Tradition, share of ourselves in service to others, and strive to promote the dignity of all human life and justice for all, as we continue toward the eternal glory of God's kingdom.

FROM THE PASTOR . . .

Our gospel this weekend is very challenging. Jesus tells us, "Whoever aspires to greatness must serve the rest. Whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all. The Son of Man has not come to be served but to serve." The Lord is teaching us that if we are to follow him faithfully, it will be through our love and service to one another. To truly be his disciple means we have to commit our lives in service to our neighbor and to the Lord.

At our recent priest's fall workshop in Ames, we were discussing what it means to be of service to the Lord. We had this discussion in light of the upcoming year of mercy. The diocese is in the process of organizing study days and workshops to talk about how we can serve the needs of others through the Lord's mercy for all of us. Plans are being made to introduce a new evangelization program for all the parishes to begin implementing this coming Lent. Various other options are being discussed to assist the parishes in helping them to celebrate and live out the mercy that God has for all his people. The next study day for the priests will be on Thursday, November 5, as we continue our discussion concerning the Jubilee of Divine Mercy. I will keep you informed as I receive new information from the diocese.

Peace,
Fr. John

Laudato Si' Encyclical —

The Good News People share from Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si' (Praise Be to You). The encyclical is subtitled, On Care for Our Common Home.

Pope Francis says, "The urgent challenge to protect our common home includes a concern to bring the whole human family together to see a sustainable and integral development, for we know that things can change. Young people demand change. They wonder how anyone can claim to be building a better future without thinking of the environmental crisis and the suffering of the excluded." He calls for a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. Obstructionist attitudes can range from denial of the problem to indifference, nonchalant resignation or blind confidence in technical solutions. We require a new and universal solidarity. (13-14)

Another Harvest Festival — has come and gone, and I would like to thank everyone who somehow had a part in it. Thank you to all who made a donation of money or a prize, provided something for dessert, the Country Store, the Cake Walk, worked a shift or shared a meal among family and friends. To Mary Ann and Mike Assmann and the Quilters, thank you for a beautiful quilt. Thank you to Theresa Blum for the donation of fleece pillows that were raffled, and thanks to Mary Kloewer and Sherry Krantz for decorating. To the Circle Leaders and the Knights, thank you so much for your hard work and dedication. All these things together made for another successful Harvest Festival. May the Grace of God be with each and every one of you. — Julie Thraen, St. Michael's Guild President

Copies Of Pope Francis's — encyclical Laudato Si (On Care of our Common Home) were sold at all Masses this weekend. If you did not get a copy and would like to have one, please call the rectory at 755-5244 or Deacon Pat at 755-2910. The price is $5 if we get a large enough reorder to save shipping. Also, if you would like to participate in a study of this latest Catholic document, please call Deacon Pat or Charlotte Willenborg at 712-210-4781 to see what schedule is possible.

Remembering The Dead — This time of year, we especially remember loved ones who have died since last November 1. The name of those who were members of the parish, or whose funeral was here, will be placed on a scroll before the altar. On Monday, November 2, during the 7:00 pm Mass, we will read the names of the deceased and invite members of the family to come forward with a candle bearing the name of their loved one. For those who were buried from St. Michael's, a call will be made to a survivor to invite them to Mass. We also invite others who have lost a loved one this past year, but whose loved one was not buried from here, to have a candle displayed. If you would like a candle in memory of your loved one, call the office, and we will prepare one for you.

Prayer Works — There's a story told about a woman who prayed to the Virgin that one of her sons would become a priest. She had seven sons, but all of them married and raised families. Then she prayed that one of her grandsons would become a priest. She had many grandsons, but none chose that life. The woman continued her prayer. She was almost 100 years old and near death when one of her grandsons, at the age of 33, decided to become a priest. She died a happy woman knowing her lifelong prayer was finally answered. The story is true, told by the priest himself. Prayer works; you just have to keep at it.
