MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Michael's Catholic Parish, are many parts, but one body. As a community of believers in Jesus Christ and inspired by the Holy Spirit, we celebrate the sacraments, are challenged by Sacred Scripture and Roman Catholic Tradition, share of ourselves in service to others, and strive to promote the dignity of all human life and justice for all, as we continue toward the eternal glory of God's kingdom.

FROM THE PASTOR . . .

I think we should be familiar with the story of the Pharisee and the tax collector at prayer. Both men are praying to God, but they are doing so in quite different ways. The Pharisee prays to God using many words. In fact, he speaks rather boldly to God. On the other hand, the tax collector uses prayer as an opportunity to allow the presence of God to touch his life. The Pharisee prays from his pride, and because of this disposition, God can not touch his heart. Where as the tax collector offers ample room for humility, and God can freely enter his heart and touch his life.

This dynamic of interaction with the Lord in prayer is one of receiving from the Lord through our openness and then giving back to others through the working of the Holy Spirit. Prayer is the journey from our human reality to God's truth, and this does require humility on our part. It is through the Holy Spirit that we are able to grow in maturity, that we can become more humble. The example of the Pharisee reminds us that we need to reject the temptation of making ourselves the center of attention in all of our prayers.

*Peace,
Fr. John*

Growing In Faith?: How do I strive to live repentance in my life?

Jubilee Year Of Mercy —

In the Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis calls each one of us to be a disciple to share our faith by what we do and what we say. He says, "This sharing of our faith is always respectful and gentle. The first step is personal dialogue, when the other person speaks and shares his and her joys, hopes and concerns for loved ones, or so many other heartfelt needs. Only afterward is it possible to bring up God's words, but always keeping in mind the fundamental message: the personal love of God who became man, who gave himself up for us, who is living and who offers us his salvation and His friendship." (Joy of the Gospel, 128)

The gift of listening to others' needs, wants, and concerns is the first step for we in the church to help renew not only our own lives but the life of the church and the world itself. What would our world be like if we would all listen to others before we give our own two bits worth?

Grant Eternal Rest, O Lord, To: — Ed Stephany, father of Paula Bielenberg, of our parish.

Collections, Collections, Collections — We have a number of extra collections coming in the next two months. Here is the list of the coming collections so that you can plan ahead with your contribution choices.

The Archdiocese of the Military: This collection is taken every three years and was established to provide the Catholic Church's full range of pastoral ministries to those in the United States Armed Forces. Envelopes for this collection will be in the back of church for the next several weeks.

World Mission Sunday: This annual collection goes to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and supports the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe where priests, religious, and lay leaders serve some of the poorest of the poor. These envelopes will also be in the back of church for the next several weeks.

Hurricane Matthew Relief: Bishop Pates has asked for the parishes of our diocese to support the relief efforts in the areas impacted by this hurricane. The funds collected will be used by Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities, USA, as they provide aid in the form of water, food, shelter and medical care. As the bishop has suggested, we will have a second collection at the Masses the weekend of October 29-30.

Catholic Campaign For Human Development: This annual collection funds programs in communities in the United States. By giving a hand up, rather than a handout, CCHD helps people living in poverty join together to identify problems, make decisions, find ways to improve lives, and build solidarity in our communities. The goal of CCHD is to break the cycle of poverty in all communities across the country. Envelopes for this collection will be attached to the November 13 bulletin.

Thanksgiving Day: It has been the tradition at St. Michael's the last several years to give the collection at our Mass on Thanksgiving Day to our local Benevolence Fund. This fund is used to help people in our area with basic food or fuel needs on a one time special basis. The only support for this fund comes from our area churches.

Retirement Fund for Religious: Envelopes for this collection will be attached to the bulletins on December 4. This annual collection supports the senior Catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests who worked tirelessly for little or no pay. As a result, their communities lack adequate savings for retirement and eldercare.

For those who were buried from St. Michael's, a call will be made to a survivor to invite them to Mass. We also invite others who have lost a loved one this past year, but whose loved one was not buried from here, to have a candle displayed. If you would like a candle in memory of your loved one, call the office, and we will prepare one for you.
