FROM THE PASTOR . . .

Our reading this weekend talks about the coming of the "End Times." These readings inform us there will be a day when the world as we know it will come to an end. The crowd in the gospel asks Jesus, "When will this happen?" and "What will be the signs when it takes place?" (Hint: the Cubs winning the World Series, just kidding.) Jesus informs the crowd, that the "When" and the "How" of the end times are the wrong questions to be asking. Rather, we are told that our concern should be on how we are living out our faith right now. Are we a loving people? Are we authentically living out our faith everyday of our lives?

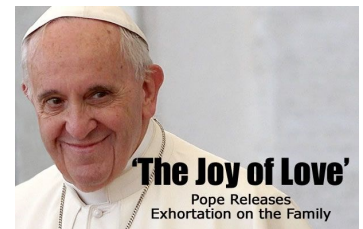

Jesus is instructing the crowd and us that we should be living our lives as if the Lord has already come. We should be watchful and diligent right now in living out our faith. Jesus is saying that being fearful of the coming of the end times is not healthy or even necessary for us, rather we should concentrate on living out joy filled lives. We should focus on praising and serving God right now and not worrying about when or how the world will end.

*Peace,
Fr. John*

Growing In Faith?: Am I prepared for the coming of the Lord?

Apostolic Exhortation "The Joy of Love" — (from the 2014/2015 Assembly of the Synod of Bishops)

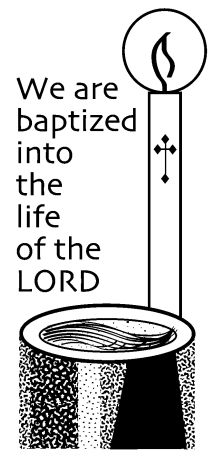

Pope Francis states, I would make it clear that not all discussions of doctrinal, moral, or pastoral issues need to be settled by intervention of the magisterium (by Rome). Each country or region, moreover, can seek solutions better suited to its culture and sensitive to its traditions and local needs. For cultures are in fact quite diverse and every general principle needs to be enculturated, if it is to be respected and applied." (introduction, page 10)

The Catholic Church is a world religion. Traditions in the African bush are certainly different than in New York City. Even in different regions of the United States there are cultural differences that some in our own communities find very challenging. The Church is listening.

The idea is for children to have an opportunity to make gifts for their family, learn about the birth of Christ, and spend a fun evening with Mom or Dad and friends. Please call Veronica if you would like to host a craft table.

Catholic Campaign For Human Development — envelope is attached to this bulletin. This collection provides funding for groups that make lasting change and uplift the poor in the United States. CCHD's grants improve education, support economic development, and create affordable housing in low income neighborhoods. Help continue to defend human dignity and build communities of solidarity. Help break the cycle of poverty.

Catholic Daughters Court of St. Katherine — in conjunction with the Knights of Columbus will celebrate our annual Memorial Mass, November 17, at St. Joseph's Church in Earling at 6:00 pm in memory of our Daughters and Knights who have died this past year. We invite the families of the deceased to attend. Following the Mass there will be a meal hosted by the Knights and a short meeting to plan our December Christmas meeting.

Jubilee Year Of Mercy — To refrain from judgement and condemnation means, in a positive sense, to know how to accept the good in every person and to spare him any suffering that might be caused by our partial judgment, our presumption to know everything about him. But this is still not sufficient to express mercy. Jesus asks us also to forgive and to give. We need to be instruments of mercy because it was we who first received mercy from God. We need to be generous with others, knowing that God showers his goodness upon us with immense generosity. — Pope Francis

Discernment — What is known in vocation circles as the "process of discernment" is simply the time we pilgrims here on earth take to identify our strengths and gifts and determine how they may best be put to use in joyful service of the church and the world as we "journey onwards toward our heavenly homeland."
