The Catholic Church, in fidelity to her mission, wishes to cooperate with every initiative that defends and protects the dignity of persons, especially of those whose rights are violated. In implementing this urgent priority of “zero hunger”, I assure you of our complete support and encouragement for the efforts in course.

I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink.” These words embody one of the axioms of Christianity. Independent of creeds and convictions, they can serve as a golden rule for our peoples. What is true of individual peoples is also true for humanity as a whole. Humanity plays out its future by its ability to respond to the hunger and thirst of its brothers and sisters. In that ability to come to the aid of the hungry and thirsty, we can measure the pulse of our humanity. For this reason, I desire that the fight to eradicate the hunger and thirst of our brothers and sisters, and with our brothers and sisters, will continue to challenge us not to grow weary and to keep dreaming – both of these! – in seeking creative solutions of change and transformation.

HOLY DAY
FEAST OF ALL SAINTS MASS TIMES:
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 6:00PM
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 8:30AM

SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK

This sacrament, best celebrated when the community gathers for worship, is scheduled November 11/12 at each Mass. It is intended for Catholics over the age of 7, the traditional ‘age of reason’, whose lives are disrupted by: accident or illness, chronic or acute, physical or psychological; or upcoming surgery.

As one of the seven sacraments it employs the use of oil, a medicinal agent in ancient times. This sacrament celebrates God’s desire and the hope of the Catholic community that the recipient either return to health and/or live well despite the illness or accident.

Discipleship: a Catholic Perspective

Richard Kulleck will teach this second

Examine the meaning and implications of discipleship:

- Discipleship in the Gospels
- Discipleship and a Personal Relationship with Christ
 - Discipleship and the New Evangelization
 - The Cost of Discipleship
 - Three Stages of Discipleship
- Essential Discipleship Mature Discipleship
 and Radical Discipleship
- Mary in the New Testament,
 Model of Discipleship
