By God's Design the Vocation and Mission of Women

In this year of Consecrated Life, how can we, as women of the Church, live out our calling and vocation as women and spiritual mothers of souls? By god's design, all women are called to be formed by the Holy Spirit in the mold of Mary, who is the model of feminine virtue. St. John Paul II, in his Letter to Women (1995) wrote "We can note that women are ever ready and willing to give themselves generously to others...In this work, they exhibit a kind of affective, cultural and spiritual motherhood..."

June 7, 2015

Happy Feast of Corpus Christi! This feast is always celebrated two weeks after Pentecost, and it calls us to reflect upon the unimaginable gift that we receive at every Holy Mass— the Body and Blood of Christ himself. He is personally present to us under the sacramental form of consecrated bread and wine. Our hearts are to linger with gratitude and joy for our communion with him. How often do we linger over that?

The Holy Father has written a special prayer for the Jubilee Year of Mercy that he invites us to pray:

Lord Jesus Christ,
you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.
Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money; the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things;
made Peter weep after his betrayal,
and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.
Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us, the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman:
"If you knew the gift of God!"
You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy:

let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified. You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God. Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind. We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

I invited Fr. Ron Schock to send us an article for next week's bulletin so that he may begin to introduce himself to you in his own words. He is very enthusiastic about his arrival here on July 1st, and we look forward to reading a little about him next week.

PS: If you haven't already made a gift to the Furnace Fund for a new furnace for St. Joseph School, I invite you to do so as a welcome to Fr. Ron!

May you rejoice in the Lord's unfathomable gifts! Fr. William Pifer
