December 14th, 2014 Third Sunday of Advent

Once again we encounter John the Baptist in today's Gospel. He "came to testify to the light" (v7), who is the one promised by God long ago through the prophets. John's presence and preaching stir up the hopes of the people. They suspect he might be "the Christ or Elijah or the Prophet" (v25), individuals expect to be sent by God to the people. But John tells them, and us, that the one coming "after me" 9v27) is more than that. The one who is to come is the Son of God, our redeemer.

Today's text from Third Isaiah is considered a foreshadowing of the mission of Jesus. "The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me" (v1). He has been anointed and sent. He comes to bring "glad tiding" (v1), the gospel, to those in darkness. The time of his visitation marks a new era in world history, a time when those who are in need of God's healing grace will receive it and when justice will "spring up" (v11) on earth.

Paul calls the Thessalonians to persevere in their faith. "Pray without ceasing" (v17), he advises. In his prayer for them he prays that God will "make you perfectly holy/and may you .../ be preserved blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" (v23). God is faithful, Paul tells us, and "he will also accomplish it" (v24). Writing with an expectation of an imminent return of the Lord Jesus, Paul exhorts them to live lives of holiness as they wait. Two thousand years later, we still anticipate his return and so are called to live with that same hope, cooperating with the grace of God in our lives.

For reflection: How does my baptismal anointing unite me with Christ's mission to bring good news to the world? God desires to make us holy and blameless: do I regularly seek God's grace to grow in holiness, or am I content to stay as I am?

2015 Year of Consecrated Life [November 30th, 2014 ~ February 2nd, 2016]

"Religious life ought to promote growth in the Church by way of attraction. The Church must be attractive. Wake up the world! Be witnesses of a different way of doing things, of acting, of living! It is possible to live differently in this world." -- Pope Francis

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux lived in a Carmelite convent with her older sister Pauline. Pauline was with Thérèse throughout her brief life, illness, and death at the tender age of 24. It is no accident that Jesus sent out his disciples in pairs. Having a spiritual companion, as Thérèse did, can be of great help and comfort on the sometimes difficult spiritual journey. Cultivate spiritual friendships in your own life. —Take Five for Faith
