Music Ministry—Accompanist needed

Earlier this year, our parish organist of over 40 years passed away. We are in need of a volunteer to help with this ministry. Play is generally once or twice a month. If you can play keyboard and/or the organ, we could use your talent to accompany our singers. Additional cantors and singers for our choirs are needed, also. Practices are the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month from 7:00-8:00 pm in the church. Join us! Call Donna Overbay, 913-837-4616, if you have questions.

Spreading God's Mercy

We are all children of this God whose mercy, goodness, and power are boundless, persistent, and untiring.

And children should be like their parents.

We have had the grace to experience God's mercy - through the sacraments, through prayer, through being taught the Good News about Jesus Christ.

But there are many people around us who haven't had that grace, or have forgotten about it.

I can think of nothing that would please God more than if we all made the commitment to spread that mercy this week, even just a little bit.

We all have relationships that are not exactly marked by mercy.

We all know of relationships that are marred by indifference and envy and resentment.

This week, why not take the first step towards reconciliation, with prayer, words, or actions?

Why not follow in the footsteps of Christ, not waiting for others to take the first step, but doing so ourselves, just like Christ, showing them by our courage and humility the face of Christ, our merciful Lord?

In his conversations with St. Faustina, Jesus promised to unleash on the world a flood of mercy.

He has been doing so, and he wants to continue to do so.

The flood hasn't yet reached every heart.

This week, let's be conscious channels for that flood, clear pipelines for that mercy to refresh someone's shriveled and dried up heart.

If today we put ourselves at Christ's service for this purpose, I am sure he will give each one of us plenty of opportunities to carry it out.

All we need to do is keep ever on our lips that prayer that he himself taught to St. Faustina: Jesus, I trust in you.

Hop Into Spring! Children of all ages are welcome to join in springtime activities at Queen of the Holy Rosary Catholic School—Wea, 22705 Metcalf. Saturday April 16, 10:00 am to Noon. Contact stsmith@qhrwea.org
