How and Why to Respond to Christ's Call

Jesus doesn't work alone. He calls us to work with him.

We respond to that call by following his commandments and obeying the teachings of his Church.

We respond by keeping our prayer life in shape and embracing the sacraments.

We respond by looking for opportunities to draw others closer to Christ through our courageous but respectful words and through our tireless example of humility, faith, and selfless concern for our neighbor.

We respond by listening for the small inspirations the Holy Spirit sends us each day - inspirations that almost always lead us out of our comfort zones for the sake of our neighbor.

Jesus calls, and we must respond, leaving behind the boat that we love and the nets that we depend on.

It is not always easy to respond to Christ's call.

Life is already hard. When he asks more of us, our first reaction is usually to hesitate, or even to rebel.

That's when we have to remember why Jesus keeps calling us.

It's because he loves us.

It's because he wants us to be with him.

It's because he knows that only he can fill our hearts with the meaning and purpose we yearn for.

Jesus does not call us for selfish reasons—he can't be selfish.

He calls us for our sake, and when we respond, he always stays right there at our side.

He will remind us of this during Mass. It's only because he has called us to be his followers that we will have this remarkable opportunity to receive God himself at Holy Communion.

When we do, let's thank him for not giving up on us, for continuing to call us - and let's promise him that this week we will listen with extra attention.

This year's Archbishop's Call to Share appeal has us reflect on Giving is a Holy Act. Please prayerfully consider giving to the needs of our Archdiocese as we conduct the 2017 Archbishop's Call to Share over the next weeks. Gifts of any amount are welcome, although if you are not doing so already, please consider a gift of a dollar a day ($365) or more. Please return your pledge envelope soon or donate online at www.calltoshare.org

Our church was beautifully decorated for the Christmas season. Thank you to those who helped to put up and take down the decorations. Thanks, also, to those who contributed in any way to the celebration of the Liturgy; those who served as lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, musicians, servers, and greeters.
