The Capuchin Franciscans are a religious order of men whose lives are modeled after their founder, St. Francis of Assisi.
Dedicated to lives of fraternity, prayer and service to humankind, their work calls them to parishes, hospitals, schools, shelters for the homeless, homes for the aged, migrant farm camps and foreign missions.
Missionary friars have been serving the local people in the bush of Papua New Guinea for more that half a century! They live and work among the people, while teaching Christianity and sharing the Gospel.
A Capuchin Franciscan friar will be visiting the parish next weekend to share the Good News about the Capuchins' mission.

Archbishop Joseph Naumann invites you to celebrate the gift of Natural Family Planning by commemorating the papal encyclical, Humanae Vitae, with a Mass on Thursday, July 23, at 7:00 pm at Cure' of Ars Parish, Leawood.

Question and Answer Session Thursday, July 30th, 7:00 pm

A lot has been happening in the church these last few weeks: Pope Francis' encyclical on the environment, the Supreme Court's decision on same sex marriage, HHS mandate, etc. Monsignor Bergman and Deacon George are hosting a question and answer session on Thursday, July 30th, 7:00 pm in the church basement. Slips of paper will be available in the weeks ahead so that you can write down your questions about these or any other topic.

Sunday Bible Reflections by Dr. Scott Hahn

As the Twelve return from their first missionary journey in today's Gospel, our readings continue to reflect on the authority and mission of the Church.

Jeremiah says in the First Reading that Israel's leaders, through godlessness and fanciful teachings, had mislead and scattered God's people. He promises God will send a shepherd, a king and son of David, to gather the lost sheep and appoint for them new shepherds (see Ezekiel 34:23).

The crowd gathering on the green grass (see Mark 6:39) in today's Gospel is the start of the remnant that Jeremiah promised would be brought back to the meadow of Israel. The people seem to sense that Jesus is the Lord, the good shepherd (see John 10:11), the king they've been waiting for (see Hosea 3:1-5).

Jesus is moved to pity, seeing them as sheep without a shepherd. This phrase was used by Moses to describe Israel's need for a shepherd to succeed him (see Numbers 27:17). And as Moses appointed Joshua, Jesus appointed the Twelve to continue shepherding His people on earth.

Jesus had said there were other sheep who did not belong to Israel's fold, but would hear His voice and be joined to the one flock of the one shepherd (see John 10:16). In God's plan, the Church is to seek out first the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and then to bring all nations into the fold (see Acts 13:36; Romans 1:16).

Paul, too, in today's Epistle, sees the Church as a new creation, in which those nations who were once far off from God are joined as "one new person" with the children of Israel.

As we sing in today's Psalm, through the Church, the Lord, our good shepherd, still leads people to the verdant pastures of the kingdom, to the restful waters of baptism; He still anoints with the oil of confirmation, and spreads the Eucharistic table before all people, filling their cups to overflowing.

Readings: Jeremiah 23:1-16, Psalms 23:1-6. Ephesians 2:13-18, Mark 6:30-34
