"The Hope of Being Loved Forever"

Our Holy Father Pope Francis has announced a Jubilee Year of Mercy. We are invited to remember that mercy is the bridge that connects us to God, "opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness".

On the weekend of December 5/6, we will make a commitment as a parish community to recognize that we have been blessed, and to extend the goodness and mercy that we have received to those in need. We will fill out Year of Mercy Commitment forms at Masses that weekend to demonstrate our willingness to perform Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy throughout the year.

Please visit www.archkck.org/mercy to learn more.

Forming a Christian Worldview

The freedom of Christ's Kingdom is an interior freedom, a peace and strength of soul that only his grace can give us.

If up to now we haven't experienced it as deeply as we would like, there could be a variety of reasons.

One simple one could be that we just don't know his teaching well enough to understand and follow it.

In past generations, the values of popular culture were for the most part inspired by a Christian worldview.

Entertainment, schools, and the general patterns of behavior encouraged by society were more or less in harmony with the moral and spiritual messages that people would hear at Sunday Mass.

As a result, the Sunday homily was supported and reinforced by many other sources of input.

But now that has changed.

The world around us has been secularized, and normal behavior is, often, profoundly anti-Christian.

As a result, CCD and the Sunday homily are not enough anymore.

If we want to truly understand ourselves and the world in the light of Christ's saving truth, we have to take a more active role.

If all week long we fill our hearts and minds with secular images and information, we will begin to think like secularists, even if we still come to Sunday Mass.

And then it will be no surprise that we aren't experiencing the interior freedom that Christ promises us.

Following him faithfully requires seeking him out, spending time each day in personal prayer, and spending quality time each week studying our faith.

In a world that is rebelling against our King, unless we are Christians who actively follow Christ, we will slowly slide into rebellion ourselves.

With today's solemn celebration of Christ's Kingship, let's promise our Lord that we will never let that happen to us.
