My Dear Family of St. Therese,

Last weekend we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday, a weekend we remember St. Faustina and the great love and mercy the Lord has for us. It was a very special weekend for our Spanish Community as they spent Sunday in the Upper Room of the Parish Center for a retreat day, family meal and Mass. The pictures of the day can be found on our parish web site www.sttheresemontauk.weconnect.com - go to the home page.

Our web site has several pictures of the events that have taken place here in our parish. If you haven't visited as yet, I invite you to please do so. The web site also has a copy of our bulletin, the readings of the day and also the gatherings that take place in our parish throughout the week. As the events happen we try to keep you up to date.

This weekend we welcome Fr. David Attiletta of the Order of St. Dominic to St. Therese. Fr. David will speak at all the Masses about the Society of the Propagation of the Faith.

While April got off to a bang with Easter, it is also the beginning of our Wedding Season at St. Therese. For the most part, it is a quiet month.

May, however, is a different story! The month begins with our 8:30 a.m. First Friday Mass on May 4th (the Feast of St. Florian – patron of firefighters) offered for the Members of the Montauk Fire Department. On May 5th there will be a Memorial Mass at 11:00 a.m. for Lucille Malouche who passed away in the fall and May 6th at the 10:30 Family Mass we will celebrate First Communion. So May, the month of Mary, is off to a busy start!!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Tom Murray & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Thomas Murray 668-2200.

Bishop McGann Mercy Closing

Bishop McGann Mercy High School will close at the end of the school year and Our Lady of Mercy and St. Isidore schools will combine into a new N-8 school: St.

John Paul II Regional School which will open September 2018. The decision was made reluctantly, and only after much study and prayer. The diocese plans to do everything possible to make the transition as easy as possible for those affected. A special hotline 516-280-4124 have been set up for parents, students, faculty and staff who need additional information.

Please pray for all those affected by this announcement.

Third Sunday of Easter

BELIEVING IN JESUS CHRIST

Throughout the Easter season, all three of the Sunday readings are taken from the New Testament—the Christian scriptures. Together they explore what it means to believe in Jesus as the Christ, the One who fulfilled the prophecies of the Jewish scriptures.

Today's selections refer to our human weakness, yet they emphasize the forgiveness and peace that are available to those who put their faith in "Jesus Christ the righteous one" (1 John 2:2). In the Acts of the Apostles Peter invites everyone to "repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away" (Acts 3:19). The First Letter of John calls Jesus Christ "expiation for our sins" (1 John 2:2). Finally, in the Gospel Jesus greets the disciples with "Peace" and urges them to preach "repentance, for the forgiveness of sins" (Luke 24:47).

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Gives Us Peace

Even though Jesus greeted his disciples by wishing them peace, they were terrified. They thought they were seeing a ghost! Jesus said, "Go ahead and touch my hands and feet. Ghosts don't have flesh and bones." Then he ate a piece of baked fish to show he was alive. He explained how he had fulfilled everything written about him in the Law of Moses, by the prophets, and in the psalms. Then he said, "Go tell all people what I have taught you."

What's new from the Desk of the Religious Education office...

As we celebrate this Easter season and continue to encourage our kids to be an Easter people...to live the joy of the Resurrection...we look forward to our 3rd and 5th grade classes doing just that. 3rd is planning on having a bake sale next Sunday morning after mass, choosing themselves to donate the money to St. Jude's children's hospital (so bring your sweet tooth to the 10:30 mass), while our 5th grade will once again be cleaning up any garbage on Parish grounds. Thank you kids!! This is what it's all about...showing the light of Christ within by striving to be the light of Christ in our everyday lives... (Of course, being an Easter people, we can't help but be ever hopeful for warmer weather also!)

Coming up...we look forward to our Communicants celebrating their first reception of Holy Communion on Sunday May 6th...a very special day indeed.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Christians Are Persecuted, Not Privileged, as Students are Taught at GWU:

George Washington University in Washington D.C. is hosting a training seminar to teach the perils of "Christian privilege." The event description asks, "How do Christians in the USA experience life in an easier way than non-Christians?" "... are there places where Christians have built-in advantages over non-Christians?" The learning objectives indicate the session will touch on "white privilege" as well.

However, the many Christians who have been mocked, ostracized, sued, lost jobs, businesses, or military rank for following their Christian beliefs and conscience, could challenge the premise of this training seminar at GWU and a similar philosophy at Simmons College in Boston and other universities. Instances of prejudice and persecution against Christians has substantially increased in the U.S. and the world.

* German Chancellor Angela Merkel declared that Christianity is "the most persecuted religion in the world."

* UK researcher, Rupert Short, says "Christians are targeted more than any other body of believers" and that Christianity is in peril, like no other religion. He is concerned that "200 million Christians are socially disadvantaged, harassed or actively oppressed for their beliefs."

* The Scottish Parliament is demanding that more be done to protect Catholics who bear the brunt of religiously-motivated hate crimes in Scotland. While Catholics comprise only 15% of Scottish population, they suffer 57% of hate crimes.

* In the Middle East, the birthplace of Christianity, Christians are escaping or being killed, tortured, or enslaved. For example, in 1990, Iraq had 1.2 million Christians. Today, there are less than 200,000.

TERCER DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Nuestro futuro con Cristo.

Por nuestro bautismo y confirmación en Cristo resucitado, nuestro futuro está con el Buen Pastor. Somos los hijos de Dios. Lo sabemos, pero no entendemos bien lo que eso significa. Ahora vemos todo como a través de un espejo empañado. Sin embargo, “ya sabemos que, cuando él se manifieste, vamos a ser semejantes él, porque lo veremos tal cual es”. Sabemos que sólo por Jesucristo estamos salvos. Sabemos que Él envía su Espíritu Santo para darnos su gracia. Maranatha: ¡Ven, Señor, ¡Jesús! *Texto: Philip J. Sandstrom, S.T.D. © 2000, OCP.
