My Dear Family of St. Therese,
In recent weeks we have been focusing on the importance of every life. How each of us is a piece of the puzzle of life. There are times when I wonder if what is going on in my life really matters, do I fit into God's plan? Here is a prayer that reassures me.

GOD HAS CREATED ME

*to do Him some definite service
He has committed some work to me which
He has not committed to another*

I HAVE MY MISSION

*I may never know it in this life
But I shall know it in the next.*

I AM A LINK IN A CHAIN

*A bond of connection between persons
He has not created me for naught
I shall do good – I shall do His work
I shall be an angel of peace
a preacher of truth in my place
while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments*

THEREFORE I WILL TRUST HIM

Whatever I am, I can never be thrown away.

*If I am sick, my sickness may serve Him.
In perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him.
If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him.*

HE DOES NOTHING IN VAIN

*He knows what He is about
He may take away my friends
He may throw me among strangers
He may let me feel desolate
Let my spirits sink
Hide my future from me – still*

HE KNOWS WHAT HE IS ABOUT!

Cardinal Newman
Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Tom & The Monsignor

Remembering a Loved One Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity, please contact Fr. Thomas Murray 668-2200.

Memorial Mass for Lucille Malouche

There will be a special Memorial Mass honoring the passing of long time parishioner Lucille Malouche on Saturday, May 5th at 11am. Lucille was much loved by her family, friends, and community and touched many lives. She was a parishioner who attended the 5 o'clock Mass on Saturday evening. All are welcome to attend this Mass. There will also be a gathering at the rectory immediately after for light refreshments.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

SAVED BY THE ONE WHO WAS REJECTED

Some city teenagers often scorn and reject farm kids. Yet it's no exaggeration to say that humanity owes its life to farmers who care for the world's crops and livestock. This week's scriptures remind us that Jesus was as rejected as a shepherd, a farm boy, yet we owe our very lives to him.

In this Sunday's reading from the Acts of the Apostles Peter tells the people that salvation comes through Jesus Christ, the one who was rejected. In John's letter we hear that we have become God's beloved children through Jesus, whom the world did not know. Lastly, in the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd who "lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). Will you join Jesus in laying down your life for God's beloved flock? TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — There is no other name under heaven by which we are to be saved than the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene (Acts 4:8-12).

Psalm — The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone (Psalm 118).

Second Reading — See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God (1 John 3:1-2).

Gospel — I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep (John 10:11-18).

Liturgy of the Word with Children

Today's Readings

Acts 4:8–12
Psalm 118:1 and 21, 22–23
1 John 3:1–2
John 10:11–16

We Pray

Lord, thank you for protecting us like a shepherd protects his sheep. You are truly the Good Shepherd. Amen.

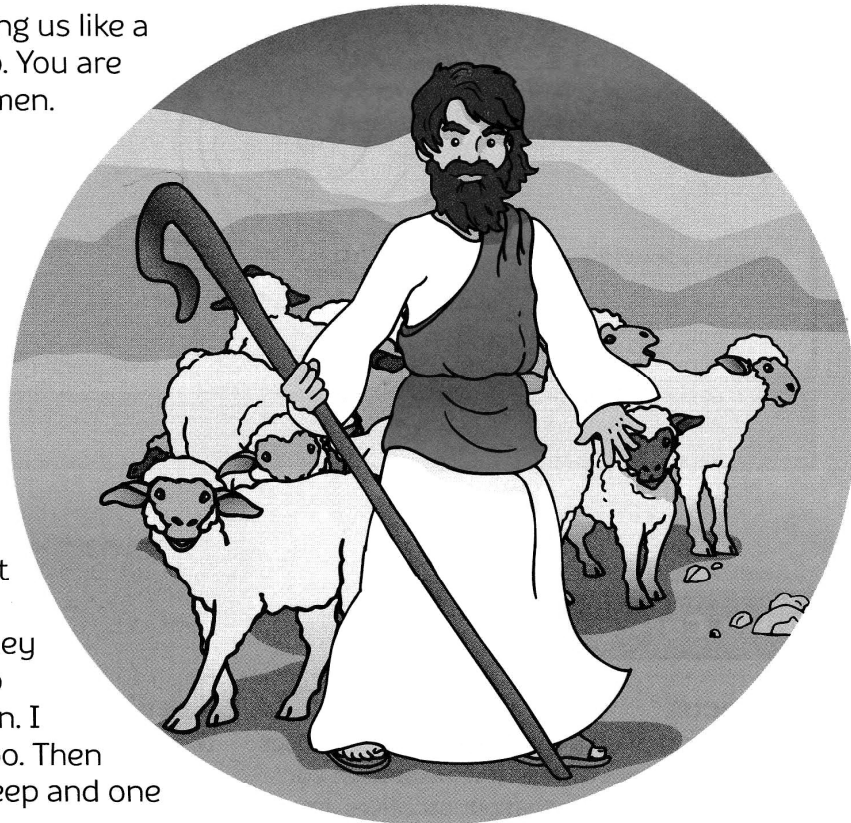

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Takes Care of Us

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd, and the good shepherd gives up his life for his sheep. Hired workers don't own the sheep, so when a wolf comes, they run away. They don't protect the sheep.

"I know my sheep, and they know me. I have other sheep that are not in this sheep pen. I must bring them together too. Then there will be one flock of sheep and one shepherd."

What's new from the Desk of the Religious Education office...

As we look forward to six of our kids celebrating First Holy Communion on Sunday, May 6th here at St. Therese, perhaps it's a good time for all of us to reflect more deeply on the Eucharist...

The Eucharist is at the very heart and soul of who we are as Catholic Christians. What we hope for our children (and ourselves) is that over time, they will develop a deep and meaningful relationship with Jesus and continue to grow in this relationship throughout their lifetime. This is the ultimate goal for all of us. Once we hold Jesus so close to our hearts, we know we can trust in Him, and once we trust in Him we will always have hope! Not only are we offered an opportunity to experience great joy in this special relationship but it is precisely this hope that points to the light at the end of the tunnel during times of suffering and hardship. Our faith carries us through. Like any relationship however, it takes time to grow and to get to know one another. And so regular participation in the mass is so important as it helps us to do just; our children are given the opportunity to hear the Word and to receive and be nourished by the real, living and ever-loving Christ...

Many thanks to our 5th graders for hosting Family Mass last Sunday. Really great job kids!

CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Nuestro futuro con Cristo.

Por nuestro bautismo y confirmación en Cristo resucitado, nuestro futuro está con el Buen Pastor. Somos los hijos de Dios. Lo sabemos, pero no entendemos bien lo que eso significa. Ahora vemos todo como a través de un espejo empañado. Sin embargo, “ya sabemos que, cuando él se manifieste, vamos a ser semejantes él, porque lo veremos tal cual es”. Sabemos que sólo por Jesucristo estamos salvos. Sabemos que Él envía su Espíritu Santo para darnos su gracia. Maranatha: ¡Ven, Señor, ¡Jesús!
